PART III, ITEM 2

Since this is the initial Form 990 filed by the organization (see explanation in the NOTE immediately following this sentence), all of its activities, as described in Part III, Item 4, are activities that were not reported on a previous Form 990

NOTE:

The organization was incorporated in the Canton of Geneva, Switzerland in 2003, after having operated for several years in France and Switzerland as an unincorporated association. After maintaining its main operational headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland for many years, the organization decided to move its principal administrative activities to the United States, and opened an office in Elk Grove Village for that purpose. In conjunction with that move, in 2012, the organization submitted its application for recognition of exemption under 501(c)(3) (Form 1023). That application remains pending. No funds have yet been transferred to the United States, but the organization expects to move its financial operations to the US office after its exemption is recognized. Because the organization had no presence in the United States prior to 2012, it is now filing Form 990 for 2012 as its initial Form 990.

PART VI, ITEM 19

The organization received no requests during the tax year for its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements. If any requests are made, the organization would provide access or copies in accordance with the requirements of Section 6104 and the regulations thereunder. Because the organization's application for exemption is still pending, and because this is its initial federal information return, it had no documents during the tax year that were subject to the public disclosure requirements

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return► File a separate application for each return.
