This is the oldest black organization in Maryland, created in 1884 long before Maryland began keeping records at the state level.

No one in the organization can remember who was handling the 501(c) paperwork requirements, but all the older members believe it was one of the nuns that is now deceased. The new officers are attempting to bring the organization into good standing. However, records prior to 2012 when the current officers took office are missing. The Past President and Vice President are deceased. The Treasurer from that time is now 92 years old and not able to provide information. She did not turn over any records as she was voted out under hostile circumstances and resentful of relinquishing the position. Information for 2012 was completed and # 14 checked.
