Foundation published 20 articles in the Kansas Farm Bureau Leader Letter that is disseminated to over 36,000 individuals. These articles include topics, such as: Estate Planning, Oil Storage & Planning, SPCC Plan, Prescriptive Easements, Spray Drift, 529 Savings Plan and Trespass laws. In addition, the Foundation has succeeded as an advocate and educator by speaking to audiences across the State of Kansas; Mobile, Alabama; and Austin, Texas, on topical issues surrounding agriculture. For instance, staff spoke at over thirty different events averaging 60 participants for a total of 1,800 individuals. Topics included: oil and gas leases; agricultural law update; agri-tourism; farm and hunting leases; smart growth; contracts; transmission line easements; urban sprawl; fence laws; zoning regulations, nuisance; and Endangered Species Act to name a few.

Further, the Foundation leads the effort by producing timely papers that impact the economic and legal viability of agriculture. Issues include: Transmission Line Easements; Oil & Gas Leases; and Severed Mineral Rights. Finally, the Foundation works with such organizations such as the Kansas Bar Association and hosts Agricultural Law Seminars for attorneys from around the State of Kansas. The hope is to educate rural, private practitioners and urban attorneys, along with policy-makers, business leaders and academics with timely court cases, regulations and laws that impact agriculture.

A copy of the Form 990 is provided to each officer and director. A member of the accounting staff reviews the complete Form 990 with the audit committee. The audit committee presents a summary to the complete board.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

All officers, directors, managers, executives and administrative staff will annually disclose or update to the President of the Board of Directors (on a form provided by the organization), their interests that could give rise to conflicts of interest. The interests include, but are not limited to, a list of family members, substantial business or investment holdings, and other transactions or affiliations with businesses and other organizations or those of family members. For each interest disclosed to the President, the President will determine whether to: (A) take no action; (B) assure full disclosure to the Board of Directors and other individuals covered by the policy; (C) ask the person to excuse themselves from participation in related discussions or decisions within the organization; or (D) ask the person to resign from his or her position in the organization, or if the person refuses to resign, become subject to possible removal in accordance with the organization's removal procedures. The organization's CEO and General Counsel will monitor proposals or ongoing transactions for conflicts or interest and disclose them to the President in order to deal with potential or actual conflicts, whether discovered before or after the transaction has occurred.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official

The President, CEO/Executive Director and General Counsel of Kansas Farm Bureau are all covered by the policy on the process for evaluating and determining compensation. This procedure begins with a performance evaluation by each member of the Board of Directors. This information is returned to the Director of Human Resources, who compiles the information for each covered person. The compiled information is provided to each member of the Executive Committee of the Board. The Executive Committee of the Board summarizes the evaluations and gives them to the Vice President of the Board for presentation to the full Board. The summary evaluations are later presented to the President, CEO/Executive Director and General Counsel of Kansas Farm Bureau. Compensation is established by the Executive Committee based on evaluations and salary market ranges (based on survey data) and presented to the full Board for informational purposes. (No conflicts of interest exist with the person that reviews that data and determines the market range). Documentation and recordkeeping is maintained on both the evaluation and compensation processes.
