3a)	Organization	Address	Tax ID	Project Description	Amount
	New Jersey Hall Of Fame	1037 Raymond Boulevard Suite # 340 Newark, NJ 07102	22-3291935	Each September, the New Jersey Hall of Fame introduces a slate of nominees for public vote to determine who should be inducted. This project will facilitate the development of a detailed teaching unit designed to use this voting opportunity to teach students how to approach their vote thoughtfully and seriously. Students will learn important techniques for analyzing the nominees through online research, ferreting out truth from hyperbole and recognizing the importance of an information source. Furthermore, students will refine the decision making skills which go into determining which nominees to support. Once a student decides whom to support, the teaching unit will encourage the development of leadership skills as the students create political campaigns for particular nominees, write speeches to support their candidates and conduct school wide campaign efforts to sway their fellow students. Many important leadership skills will be developed in this process including persuasive techniques, organizational strategies, speech writing and speech making, debating skills, video production and more. Students will refine their use of technology including computer software programs, online research tools, social media and online surveys. This project will enable students to develop leadership skills, technical skills, persuasive skills, research skills, decision making skills, writing skills, speaking skills, thinking skills and, most importantly, voting skills.	$25,000.00

Supporting adult mentors work with youth whose backgrounds include high rates of child poverty, educational challenges, family dysfunction and juvenile arrest rates. The youth are at risk and have elevated exposure to crime, gangs, violence and substance abuse. Big Brothers Big Sisters mentoring 'match' relationships provide children with positive encouragement and a reliable source of support from a caring adult. The simple act of having a consistent adult who reinforces positive decision-making has been changing lives and communities for more than 100 years. Every volunteer 'Big' is fully screened, then interviewed, trained and prepared to assist one child (their 'Little') to achieve and surpass their individual goals. Case managers track the relationships between the Bigs and Littles, offering support and guidance to help the Bigs in their efforts to help the Littles to grow, succeed (in school and beyond), and become productive, successful members of the community.	$15,000.00
