Form 990EZ - Part I (Line 10)

1. Scholarships distributed to colleges/universities on behalf of ten (10) students. Total combined amounts were $10,500.00

2. Made a contribution to support the Youth Education Success Summit, an educational forum designed to help prepare students for college.

Between 300 - 400 high school students participated in interactive workshops about college credits, resume writing and financial aid.

3. Provided school supplies to a local elementary school with predominately minority students from low income families. School supplies are provided to two students per grade (pre-kindergarten through sixth grade). The students who received the supplies are selected by the school principal to ensure those with the greatest need are selected. All items from each student's supply lists are donated along with new backpacks for each student.
