Form 990, Page 2, Line 4d (Other program services) - Other program services includes the Financial Literacy Program, Community Education Program, and Project Bridge Program. The Financial Literacy Program provides trained volunteers to educate clients in basic household budgeting and understanding credit. Education is provided through one-on-one counseling and small group counseling. For the Community Education Program, ODB provides information about its activities to the community and referring agents and fosters relationships with donors through several mediums, including the organization's website, print materials, display boards, and newsletters. The Project Bridge Program, which is for selected clients, draws upon the resources of all of ODB's programs and the community to develop a comprehensive plan for each client and provide services tailored to each client's specific needs.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - ODB's 2012 form 990 is prepared by an independent certified public accountant. The form is reviewed by ODB's Finance Manager, Treasurer, and Executive Director. It is then presented to the Board of Directors for comments. The Treasurer then approves form 990 and it is submitted to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - The Executive Director and President of the Board monitor compliance with the conflict of interest policy, which requires all interested persons to file a disclosure statement at least annually.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a and 15b - On an annual basis, an ad hoc committee comprised of Board members reviews the Executive Director's performance against predetermined goals. The committee also reviews comparable compensation information of other not-for-profit organizations of similar size. The committee recommends a salary for the Executive Director to the entire Board for approval. ODB currently does not have any key employees.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - ODB's financial statements are made available to the public on ODB's website. ODB's governing documents and conflict of interest policy are available to the public upon request.
