PART I LINE 2: Funds allocated for special projects outside the US are proposed to the MRN Board of Directors either by US missionary staff members serving abroad or by denominational leaders from the nations where MRN serves to support church planting efforts. Proposals are entertained only if national leaders on the respective fields approve of the projects and agree to provide budgets and accountability for the use of the funds provided. When a project is approved by the MRN Board, it may be funded from the general fund or by special gifts contributed by US church partners and individual donors or by a combination of these sources. Accountability for the appropriate use of the funds is the joint responsibility of the national denominational leaders involved and the MRN staff serving on a given field overseas.

PART I LINE 3: All amounts shown in column F are accounted for on a cash basis. The total of investments by region is detailed in Part 1.

PART II LINE 1: All amounts reflected in this section are accounted for on a cash basis.

In Bosnia Hercegovina, the Evangelical Church of Bosnia Hercegovina is supplied with support that is used by the national presbyters to compensate a variety of church projects and national pastors. Funds are provided only at the request of the national presbyters and they distribute the funds as they will. In Africa, Dr. John Tanksley serves part of the year training national doctors in orthopedic surgical techniques. His contribution of funds provides needed equipment and supplies as he is able to meet specific clinic needs in the African hospitals he is able to serve.
