Part II, Line 9 - Accounting for Conservation Easements

The Organization received all of its easements via donation. The Organization does not report donated easements as revenues or as assets. The footnotes to the Organization's financial statements include the following related to conservation easements: "Property owners grant to the Corporation conservation easements that restrict the owner's use of the land in perpetuity. Some allow the Corporation to conduct research and studies on the properties. At December 31, 2012, the Corporation held easements on six properties for a total of 730 acres. Since the Corporation does not receive any rights to the property, the Corporation does not report a value."

Part V, Line 4 - Intended Uses for Endowment Funds

Endowment Funds are to be invested in perpetuity, the income from which is to be used to monitor and enforce conservation easements. In the remote

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

The Organization's Form 990 will be prepared with the assistance of an independent Certified Public Accounting firm. The completed return, including all required schedules and statements, will be provided to The Organization's board of directors at least 21 days prior to the deadline for submission of the return to the Internal Revenue Service.

The completed return will be reviewed by the Treasurer who will make sure that the information it contains is accurate and complete. If it is not, the Treasurer will inform The Organization's President, who will inform the preparer of the necessary corrections and additions. If necessary, the preparer will be instructed to request an extension of the filing deadline. Once the Treasurer has determined that the return is accurate and complete, the 990 or 990-EZ is presented to the Board of Directors at the next Board Meeting. After the Board has recommended approval of the 990 or 990-EZ, the Treasurer will sign the return and arrange for it to be filed. A copy of the return will be retained with The Organization's records, in keeping with the recordkeeping policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The Organization requires that all Board of Directors sign the conflict of interest policy and the Organization asks that Board members disclose any conflicts at the board meetings. If there is a conflict, that Board member is asked to leave the room and the minutes reflect that the person left the room and when the person returned.
