Part I General Information on Activities Outside the United States

Part I, Line 2 For grantmakers. Describe in Part V the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of its grants and other assistance outside the United States.

The Ministry received updates by phone or email communications to the Directors or staff members of those U.S. ministry organizations and also through their ministry newsletters, web sites, and acknowledgement receipt letters. A record is kept of these program services and prior to the annual board meeting a Ministry Review is provided to the Board of Directors. The Ministry Review provides an in depth report of each U.S. ministry organization's missions projects, and details of specific purposes, goals and accomplishments. In addition the prior accomplishments also appears in the Ministry Review along with the present year's accomplishments so as to provide the growth, progress and impact of those respective projects. During the annual board meeting this Ministry Review is reviewed and then the Board of Directors express their comments about specific projects. The Board of Directors then give their unanimous approval for the continuation of those projects and for any new projects that might arise in the coming year.
