vendor. Local bus passes and gas cards are purchased in advance by each respective Division Director. These passes and gas cards are distributed to eligible clients according to need. Other assistance includes helping clients secure identification cards and copies of birth certificates so they can obtain employment. A case manager personally interviews clients and assesses their need for help. In some cases payments are made online by credit card, and in other cases payment is made through a requisition of petty cash. Each purchase is recorded by the case manager on a spreadsheet with identifying information, type of assistance, and the amount.
