Common Goods Charity Thrift Store: operated a thrift store to continue mission of supporting children and families. The Store utilized ~300 volunteers (4,261 vol. hours) to assist in store operations and processing donations. The goal of Common Goods is to have a major impact on the number of products leaving the area and/or entering landfills. On average, families who completed services raised their "Family Strengths Score" by 5 points from when they began services (rated using our Family Strengths Assessment Tool). PART III, Line 2: The organization started a new mentoring program for adults in 2012, with the goal to break down barriers and stereotypes through cross-class mentoring relationships that foster mutual understanding and respect. The mission of this program, called Side by Side, is to move program Participants from survival to sustainability by increasing their informal assets ("social capital") through mentoring relationships

PART III, Line 4d: Our other program services include Childcare Services (short-term childcare and/or respite care for children due to family crises and/or mental health issues) and Mentoring Services (just described above). A total of 451 households were served by these programs.

PART VI, Line 11b: Each member of the Board of Directors is emailed an electronic copy of the completed IRS-Form 990 in its entirety, along with its associated Schedules, prior to filing the form.

PART VI, Line 12C: It is the policy of the organization to annually request from all Board Members and Employees a list of any interests that could give rise to conflicts. This list is monitored by both the Board Chair and the Executive Director. Potential conflicts are also reviewed by the Board Chair and Executive Director. Any Board members or employees found to have a conflict of interest in a given transaction are prohibited from participating in deliberations and decisions about that transaction.

PART VI, Lines 15A-B: Compensation of the organization's Executive Director and other key employees is determined on an annual basis. A review of performance is completed by the employee's immediate supervisor or the Board Chair, a recommendation is made to the Board of Directors, and compensation of all employees is determined by the Board of Directors through approval of the organizational budget. The Board of Directors also reviews salary and wage ranges every 2-3 years through reviewing comparative data from other nonprofit organizations, both statewide and locally.

PART VI, Line 19: The organization makes its governing documents and conflict of interest policy available to the public by providing copies upon request and by providing opportunity for inspection at its offices. The organization makes its financial statements available through the means just described, as well as by posting them on the organization's website and another website (www.guidestar.org).
