Assisted Employment RetailGICT's Retail Services division is the most well-known face of Goodwill in the community. Stores serve the mission by processing, reselling or recycling donations of gently used goods, computers or vehicles through 38 locations in and around Austin. GICT offers different products to the community through three distinct types of retail locations, including Goodwill Retail Stores, Goodwill Outlet Store, and the Goodwill Computer Works Store. Select locations also house Job Help Centers, which assist Central Texans with job services and programs. Stores also provide employment and training opportunities as well as work experience for individuals with barriers. This division employed 559 individuals with barriers to employment.

(Code) (Expenses $ 7,992,991 including grants of $ 503,209) (Revenue $ 4,957,538)

Workforce Development ServicesGICT's Workforce Development programs are the essence of the mission. They are designed to help participants achieve a level of independence needed to succeed in the workplace and in life. They focus on meeting individual needs, and ensure each participant progresses to reach his or her full potential. GICT provides thousands of job-related services for people with barriers to employment each year. Participants are regularly assessed and measured by professional, dedicated staff to achieve successful and desired outcomes. Programs are available to all eligible persons, regardless of race, gender, age, disability, or religion. The three major services areas are Youth Services Programs, which serve youth ages 14 - 21, Community Rehabilitation Programs, which serve adults with disabilities, and Job Source Programs, which serve adults with barriers to employment. These barriers may include a lack of education and training, unemployment, at-risk youth, advanced age, criminal backgrounds and language barriers. In 2012 this division served 7,696 individuals with 77,789 workforce development services. They assisted in obtaining permanent employment for 1,766 persons with barriers to employment.
