History In the month of Ramadan (fasting month), 1993 Habibe Husain got an inspiration to start a non-profit organization to serve those in need in the Bay Area She was also inspired to name it "Rahima" which contains the meanings of compassion, mercy, and justice She wrote down her vision and mission with the details of the kinds of activities and projects they would focus on A few close friends subsequently joined and the work began, to start providing food to the local needy Rahima Foundation's first project was to prepare and deliver 500 bags of groceries for a thanksgiving meal, to a local Catholic charity called "Sacred Heart" Habibe Husain was already known in the community for her community services, and was respected for her dedication, integrity, and trustworthiness Thus the support from the community came readily, in the form of non-perishable food, as well as monetary donations In time the operations moved from her carport to a small rental facility, and then to a larger facility which is currently used as offices of the foundation, as well as warehousing close to ten tons of food that is distributed to 1800 to 2000 individuals Since 1993, when we started with taking care of a couple of families, Rahima Foundation has grown to a much larger institution, currently serving hundreds of families in the Bay Area Many of these families are refugees from distant places like Somalia, Iraq, Afghanistan, who have been displaced primarily because of wars These families are sponsored by vanous agencies like Catholic Charties and IRC, and get initial help from them for a few months After that they are expected to fend for themselves Rahima Foundation provides much-needed food to the families Rahima also provides to the most deserving families such as single parent families, disabled, and seniors, monetary assistance towards their rent, utilities, and transportation on a monthly basis We have a process to evaluate people who apply for help to Rahima And we encourage and guide the families to become self-sufficient as quickly as possible We have kept our costs under control at less than 10% of revenue, and to this day we operate with just one part-time paid employee, the rest of the work is done by volunteers Rahima Foundation has built a trust worthy reputation in the Bay Area community over the years This is mostly because of the scrupulous, conscientious, and honest ways it is run, guided by the principles established by it's founder, Habibe Husain These principles include the following * Know & believe that God is in-charge * Charity begins at home, so serve the people in our own communities * Put yourself in others' shoes * Treat people with dignity and respect * Start small & build upon it * Be conscious of the accountability of handling public money * Consistent contributions, no matter how small, have tremendous barakah (blessings) * Do not underestimate the power of sincere initiative * Strictly follow the Law of the LandA short summary of the organization follows below Rahima International Foundation was registered as a non-profit 501c(3) Chantable and Educational organization in the State of California Our vision is to establish an institution of chanty to serve the financial, educational, emotional, social and spiritual needs of the communities Our mission is to help provide the most basic needs of fellow human beings who are unable to do it on their own, and to help them get back on their own feet Our current programs include the following * Food pantry to supplement the monthly requirements of non-penshable food items and produce for ~ 2000 people and to four local shelters * Biweekly serve dinner at a shelter for the homeless to roughly 200 people * Provide financial assistance to needy families and individuals towards their rent, utilities, etc * Need-based assistance to high school students of low-income families, so they can focus on their academic achievements * Annual "Human Dignity Day" organized in San Jose where hundreds of homeless are provided with hygiene packs and a hot meal * Annual High School Scholarships * Used car distribution to needy families Future programs being planned include the following * Establish a Rahima Endowment, as part of a Planned Giving Program * Open a free Health Clinic for the poor and uninsured * Establish a home for the destitute and abused women and children for food and shelter * Develop and implement services for seniors * Develop and implement plans for Disaster Preparedness and Relief
