The purpose of the Lane County DUII Victim Impact Panel Program is to educate court-mandated offenders arrested for "driving under the influence of intoxicants" about the impact their behavior has on other individuals in the community. Victims of impaired driving crashes and family members (all volunteers), law enforcement and others affected by an individual's choice to drive impaired are utilized to present 15 annual panels to offenders. In 2012 more than 2300 offenders were referred to attend the programs in Eugene and Florence, OR. Offenders required to listen to the speakers, watch video presentations and learn about making life-saving choices regarding sober or impaired driving.
