		Client Note 1 - PART III ROW 4a During 2012, all income received and all expenditures incurred by the Organization were for the successful implementation of the following programs and services: Real Solutions Seminars - This four-part series of one-hour workshops, open to the public, rotates through four core financial education topics revolving around Debt Reduction Services Inc's mission: personal and household budgeting, developing effective spending habits, using credit wisely, and preventing and eliminating excessive consumer debt. They are available weekly in each of our branch offices. During 2012, we held 16 of these seminars. Real Solutions Webinars - The same seminars that were facilitated in our offices are available as webinars through our Debt Reduction Services and our National Financial Education Center web sites. Since 2006, all of our webinars have been available for free to the public for anyone who has Internet access, although their most recent format allows for streaming rather than downloading. In 2012, 106 separate webinars were successfully completed. Real Solutions DVD-ROM - Debt Reduction Services Inc, throughout 2012, made available to the general public and its clients a Real Solutions Seminars DVD-ROM that contains this same four-part series of webinars in addition to webinars on money management for college students, payday and other expense loans, and a smart consumer course. This DVD-ROM is also listed on the Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy's online clearinghouse of financial education programs. Individual Client Counseling - During these one-on-one counseling sessions, an individual is taught principals relating to the management of their financial lives, including how to determine their net income and their expense limits, how to set up and maintain a budget, how to make necessary lifestyle changes, how their credit score affects might their life, and how to manage one's credit report and score. If needed, a debt management program is created and implemented. These meetings occur either face-to-face or via teleconference. These counseling sessions were held with more than 17,223 individuals during 2012. Language-specific programs - The Organization offers its financial literacy brochures, materials, and workshops in Spanish so that it may better serve the Hispanic population in its office locations. Debt Reduction Services Inc has developed dozens of educational seminars (including "Who Wants to Live Like a Millionaire?" new in 2012), printed several educational brochures, and designed numerous worksheets and handouts in English and Spanish. All are made available to the public and clients at no cost. Our four-part series of seminars, four of our brochures and their corresponding handout and materials were translated into Spanish, with more currently under development. In 2012, Debt Reduction Services Inc facilitated five workshops for low-income, non-English speaking new residents. One was hosted by an affordable housing program in Nampa, Idaho, another for low-income families in Boise, Idaho, while the remaining three were hosted by the Salvation Army in Caldwell, Idaho. Financial Literacy Coalition - The Idaho Financial Literacy Coalition is the state chapter of the Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy, which promotes financial literacy among youth and at-risk populations. In 2012, the Organization's Director of Education was elected president by the Coalition members. Coalitions and Associations - In 2012, the Organization's Director of Education continued to serve as the public member of the Council for Certification with the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences, the Ethics Committee Chair for the Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education, and was elected membership director of the Idaho Coalition Against Identity Theft. Whenever possible, the Organization makes presentations at conferences and seminars wherein they are able to offer financial education to individuals of all ages and walks of life. In 2012, our educators facilitated presentations at faith-based programs, chambers of commerce, housing authorities, affordable housing services, employee assistance programs, a state conference for high school students from rural and economically disadvantaged areas, alternative high schools, school districts, colleges, refugee programs, the Salvation Army, a veterans education program, service clubs, state human services departments, a disability advocates program, nonprofit employment services agencies, Idaho's state treasurers' Smart Women Smart Money annual conference, and state correctional facilities. In 2012, the Organization facilitated over 161 of these presentations to 4,154 individuals. The Organization has been approved by the Office of the U.S. Trustee to provide both the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling briefing, and post-bankruptcy personal management courses, as required by the "Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005." The Organization provides the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling and the post-bankruptcy debtor education course in person as well as online. The pre-bankruptcy credit counseling is also available by phone.
