This organization was founded in July, 1999, in honor of the retirement of Marie Osborn, R.N., a nurse practitioner, at the Salmon River Clinic. The Clinic was in need of support in acquiring medical equipment. The community of Stanley, Idaho provided the initial public support. Not enough support was raised for the medical equipment needed. Individuals contacted us to carry on the organization and seek additional public support for the endowment.

Part II Line 17a: The organization maintains a continuous program for solicitation of funds from the general public and community.
