	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is reviewed in detail by the members of the Zoo's Finance Committee. After the committee's approval, a copy of the Form 990 is made available to all members of the board for review, prior to its filing with the IRS.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Conflict of interest questionnaires are completed annually by all officers, directors or trustees, and key employees. Trustees who have a beneficial interest in a decision are excused from discussion and voting rights. Also, if the item of purchase is a tangible asset with potential conflicts of interest, staff is required to get multiple bids for the item.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	There are several factors, monetary and nonmonetary, that are considered in determining executive compensation. These business-related factors include: Budget. Does the budget allow for any flexibility in the offer and what is the relative financial health of our organization? Internal equity. What are other executives in the same type of job or at the same job level being paid? Market price/external demands. Is this job difficult to fill or is it hard to find qualified candidates in this location or industry? Candidates' level of experience. How many years of relevant experience does this person bring to the table? Candidates' education level. What degrees does the person have that will benefit our organization? Candidates' current compensation package. What is this person's current base pay and benefits package? Salary surveys. What are other executives in the same type of job being paid at other non-profit organizations of the same size? Once the salary is determined, the executive committee (which consists of independent board members) reviews this information. Written employment agreements are also used.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18	The organization's Form 1023 and Form 990 are available to the public upon request.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request. The Zoo's articles of incorporation and annual reports are also on file with the Colorado Secretary of State.
	Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c	The Denver Zoological Foundation's Board of Trustees assume the responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed from prior years.
