MPA adopted ASC 740-10 Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

(FIN 48) on January 1, 2009. Under ASC 740-10, an organization must recognize the tax benefit associated with tax positions taken for tax return purposes when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained. The implementation of ASC 740-10 had no impact on the financial statements. MPA does not believe there are any material uncertain tax positions and accordingly, will not recognize any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. MPA has filed Internal Revenue Service Form 990 tax returns as required to do so. MPA believes that it is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local, or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009. However, MPA is still open to examinations by tax authorities from fiscal year 2009 forward. For the year ended December 31, 2012, there were no interest or penalties recorded in the Statement of Activities.

Part XI, Line 4b and Part XII, Line 2d: The net amount of $9,893 represents a gain on sale of investments of $10,560 and loss on sale of fixed assets of $667 for calendar year 2012. Due to the immateriality of these amounts, they were classified as general and administrative expenses in the organization's audited financial statements but reported in Part VIII Statement of Revenue on Form 990.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

The Corporation has defined the procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds to entities in the United States by requiring the execution of a grant agreement that stipulates such procedures. These include the requirement that grantee organizations provide the Corporation with requests for funds covering a specific period, together with sufficient detailed information as to the costs and purposes of the items of expenses for which such funds are requested, in accordance with a mutually agreeable time schedule which will provide the Corporation sufficient opportunity to carefully review such requests and secure any funds the Corporation determines to provide to grantee organizations. In connection with the submission of each grant request, grantee organizations also submit documentation as to how the previous grant funds have been expended, the amount of unexpected funds the grantee organization then has on hand and an affirmative statement to the effect that the previous period's grant funds have been expended for the items for which such funds were requested to the extent funded by the Corporation. The Corporation may request grantee organizations to provide an independent, third-party audit of specified past expenditures of funds granted by the Corporation.

The complete name and mailing address of the organization listed in Part II is Marine Spill Response Corporation, 220 Spring Street, Suite 500, Herndon, VA 20170.

The purpose of providing grant funding to this organization is to maintain and increase existing capabilities for mitigating the environmental damage caused by oil spills within specified geographic areas determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Former President and Chief Executive Officer. Robert Aldao participated in a Master Stock Index Appreciation Rights Plan (SIARP) in 2012 that was established in 1994 and by agreement designed to provide additional compensation to Mr. Aldao for his service as President of the Corporation. The Corporation performed grants of stock appreciation rights (SAR) from 1994 to 2002, with SARs lapsing on the tenth anniversary of the grant date of each SAR. On August 5, 2005, Mr. Aldao separated from employment with the Corporation, and as part of the terms and conditions of the SIARP agreement continued post-employment with the Corporation. During the tax year, Mr. Aldao exercised SAR in the amount of $180,179.

Members of the organization elect the members of the organization's governing body, but do not approve significant decisions of the governing body, nor may receive a share of the organization's profits or excess dues or a share of the organization's net assets upon the dissolution of the organization.

Reference core Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a: The organization has two classes of members, "voting" and "non-voting." The voting members are entitled to vote for the election of the organization's governing body while the non-voting members do not have these voting rights.

Reference core Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b: The organization's governing body and/or committees with the authority to act on behalf of the governing body have reviewed and approved the information and data contained within the Form 990, including Parts I through III and VII through XII before filing. The Form 990 is prepared by MPA and reviewed by the President before filing.

Reference core Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: On an annual basis, the organization distributes and requires certification as to adherence to its conflict of interest policy. All directors, officers and employees are subject to the conditions of the policy and the annual certification requirement. Management monitors transactions on an ongoing basis for evidence of conflicts, and the organization is subject to annual audit of its financial statements on a separate basis by an independent auditing firm, the performance of which may also lead to the identification of conflicts of interest.

Individuals suspecting violation of this policy are directed to report violations to the Chairperson of the organization's Audit & Governance Committee. Should the suspected activity involve the committee chair, individuals are directed to report such violations to the Chairperson of the organization's Board of Directors. Upon confirmation of the existence of a conflict, the committee and then full Board reviews the transaction(s) in question in order to deliberate and determine the proper course of action. During such deliberations, the person(s) involved in the transaction(s) or conflict(s) do not participate in these final discussions and decision.

Part VII Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R (see instructions).

The Marine Spill Response Corporation ("MSRC") has been reported as an organization related to the filing organization Marine Preservation Association ("MPA") based upon the definition of control as provided within the instructions for Schedule R, Related Organizations and Unrelated Partnerships. Under this definition, MPA is deemed to 'control', and hence deemed to be the 'parent' of MSRC. MSRC is fully responsible for directing its own operational activities and functions independently of MPA. However, under their respective corporate organizational documents, MPA has the authority to elect and/or remove a majority of MSRC's directors. Under MPA's organizational documents, this authority is delegated to a special committee comprised of a designated subset of MPA directors who also meet certain citizenship eligibility criteria, as required by the United States Shipping Act of 1916, as amended.
