| Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used                                                                                      |                  | The board meets quarterly at which time a determination is made as to what amount, if any, should be granted from the organization to North Logan City for the library. Amounts received directly from James P Thorne Charitable Endowment Trust are generally transferred in total to North Logan City for the general operations of the library. Additional amounts raised through fundraising efforts are donated to North Logan City for library books and supplies. Review of the North Logan City financial statements confirms that donated funds have been spent on designated library operations and expenses. |
