Part II-B, Line 1, Lobbying Activities:

The Association staff met with state legislators and legislative staff to provide information on criminal defense issues, including procedural rules that would affect our practice and our ability to represent our clients effectively, and broaden criminal justice policy issues, in addition to adequate funding for public defense. Association attorneys met with state legislators and legislative staff to explain the adverse impact of proposed legislation on our clients. Association attorneys testified before legislative committees on proposed legislation as volunteers with the Washington Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and the Washington Defenders Association about public defense funding needs with the goal of influencing budget legislation to adequately fund the defense function. Because a reorganization of indigent public defense in King County came under discussion, association attorneys met with public officials to discuss alternatives and implications of various structures for providing public defense.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b: Question does not apply, as none of the committees have the authority to act on behalf of the governing body

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: Management reviews the 990 and reconciles to the audited and board approved financial statements. A copy is e-mailed to the board president and chair of the audit committee who also review the return.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Board Members and management review and sign a detailed conflict of interest form each year that covers both legal and financial conflicts. Employed attorneys review for conflicts regularly.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a: All Employees except Director are paid on an independently provided scale based on wages paid to prosecuting attorneys in the region. Director's wage was set by Board upon hire, with cost of living adjustments as negotiated for all other staff. Cost of living adjustments to the Director had been deferred during the past two to three years, and in 2011 the deferred wages were paid to her and the deferred increases applied to her salary.
