What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
The Mission of the Northwest Indian Housing Association is to promote safe, sanitary, decent and affordable housing for Tribal members in the Pacific Northwest We accomplish this by providing training and education opportunities, providing a forum for the discussion and resolution of issues, advocating for the collective benefit of all members, effectively linking members to information and financial resources, and working collaboratively with our industry partners

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28

Provided training and networking opportunities to 174 tribal housing staff and other key individuals, disseminated information which is collected from a variety of sources to 38 tribes, tribal housing authorities, and TDHEs (members), maintained organizational website, administered a Tribal youth scholarship program, and provided support and shared information with the National American Indian Housing Council (NAIHC)
