Approved Language Programs

- The Blakemore Foundation awards grants for study only at specific language programs as noted below.
- Only one language program may be listed on the application.
- Applicants for Blakemore language grants must simultaneously apply to the language program involved and to the Blakemore Foundation. Each language program has its own separate application due date and forms, which may be found on the specific program's website.
- For Japanese, we fund study at the Inter-University Program for Japanese Language Studies in Yokohama, Japan (<http://www.stanford.edu/dept/IUC/>). We do not fund Japanese language study at any other institution.
- For Chinese, we fund study at the Inter-University Program for Chinese Language Studies, located on the Tsinghua University campus in Beijing, China (<http://ieas.berkeley.edu/iup/>) and at the International Chinese Language Program at National Taiwan University in Taipei, Taiwan (<http://iclp.ntu.edu.tw/>). We do not fund Chinese language study at any other institution.
- For Korean, we recommend study at Seoul National University (<http://lei.snu.ac.kr/site/en/klec/main/main.jsp>), Yonsei University (<http://www.yskli.com/index.asp>) or Sogang University (<http://klec.sogang.ac.kr/>). We will consider study at other Korean language programs on a case-by-case basis during the application review process.
- Approval of language programs for study of languages of SE Asia will be considered on an individual basis during the application review process.

Materials to Be Submitted for Blakemore Freeman Fellowship Application

- Completed and signed application form.
- Itemized list of all college-level language classes taken by applicant for the Asian language listed on grant application, including course names, dates and locations of study.
- Essay (three to four pages in length, double-spaced) discussing:
 - Applicant's academic, professional or business background
 - Prior study and use of the language and involvement with the Asian country
 - Career objectives and how the language will be used to achieve them
- Two recent letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with applicant's academic, professional or business experience.
- Official college and university transcripts from all institutions at which applicant has studied for more than one year. Electronic transcripts or official paper documents are both acceptable.
- If applicant has not completed 3 academic years of study of the language at the college level, submit the Foreign Language Reference Form, completed by a language instructor or other similar qualified individual able to evaluate the applicant's language competency. Otherwise, do not submit the form.
- Applicants for programs involving tutorials should submit the following additional information with their application:
 - Description of the proposed tutorial program
 - Information regarding the proposed tutors' professional qualifications
 - Estimated costs for tutoring expenses
 - The applicant's proposed affiliation during the grant period with a recognized educational institution in the Asian country.

Materials to Be Submitted for Blakemore Refresher Grant Application (former Blakemore Freeman Fellows – see separate instructions below)

- Completed application form
- Essay (three to four pages in length, double-spaced) discussing:
 - Applicant's academic, professional or business background
 - Prior study and current use of the language and involvement with the Asian country
 - Career objectives and how the language is being used to achieve them
- One recent letter of recommendation from individual familiar with applicant's academic, professional or business experience.
- Curriculum vitae
- Latest official college transcript (applicable only to those who have not received a doctorate). Official electronic transcripts or document in original unopened sealed envelope from the issuing institution are both acceptable.
- Applicants for programs involving tutorials should submit the following additional information with their application:
 - Description of the proposed tutorial program
 - Information regarding the proposed tutors' professional qualifications
 - Budget for estimated tutoring expenses
 - The applicant's proposed affiliation during the grant period with a recognized educational institution in the Asian country

Materials to Be Submitted by former Blakemore Freeman Fellows for Blakemore Refresher Grant

- Completed application form
- Essay (two to three pages in length, double-spaced) discussing:
 - Reasons for requesting additional language study
 - Use of the language since last receiving a Blakemore grant.
- Curriculum vitae
- Applicants for programs involving tutorials should submit the following additional information with their application:
 - Applicant's proposed affiliation during the grant period with a recognized educational institution in the Asian country

Application Timeline

- December 31 – Postmark deadline for applications
- January – Application receipt acknowledged by email
- February - Applications reviewed by Foundation
- March - Finalists notified by email and interviews conducted
- Late March/early April - Grantees selected and notified of grants
- Late April – Names of grantees posted on website

Additional Information Concerning Application Materials

- Letters of Recommendation
 - No special forms are used. A letter printed on a recommender's professional letterhead is preferred.
 - Letters of recommendation discussing applicant's overall abilities, to the extent known by the recommender, are preferred to those which are limited to evaluating an applicant's language skills.
 - Letters of recommendation may be included with application in sealed unopened envelopes or may be sent directly to the Foundation by the recommenders by mail, fax or email.
 - Recommendations sent under separate cover should be addressed to: Blakemore Foundation, 1201 Third Avenue, Suite 4900, Seattle, Washington 98101. Letters sent directly by the recommenders may also be faxed to (206) 359-9778 or emailed to blakemorefoundation@gmail.com.
- Foreign Language Reference Form
 - This form is submitted ONLY if the applicant has not completed 3 years of study of the language at the college level. It should be completed by a language instructor or other individual competent to assess applicant's language abilities.

- Transcripts
 - Official transcripts may either be included with application or sent under separate cover. Official electronic transcripts or documents in original unopened sealed envelopes from the issuing institution are both acceptable.
 - Photocopies of transcripts from institutions located outside the United States will be accepted if official transcripts are not readily obtainable.
 - Transcripts are required only from universities at which the applicant has studied for more than one year.
- Curriculum Vitae or Resume
 - We recommend a curriculum vitae or resume be included with an application for a Blakemore Freeman Fellowship, but it is not required. A curriculum vitae or resume is required for an application for a Blakemore Refresher Grant.

Mailing Instructions

- Application materials should be carefully addressed, using the complete mailing address of the Foundation. In previous years materials have been delayed or even returned to the sender by the U.S. Postal Service due to a missing suite number or incorrect zip code. Please note that our mailing address has changed.
- Application materials should be addressed to:

The Blakemore Foundation
Eugene H. Lee, Trustee
1201 Third Avenue, Suite 4900
Seattle, Washington 98101

Application Deadline

- Applications must be postmarked by December 31.
- An application received after December 31 must show proof of mailing by the deadline consisting of one of the following:
 - A legibly dated U.S. Postal Service postmark;
 - A legible mail receipt with the date of mailing stamped by the U.S. Postal Service;
 - A dated shipping label, invoice or receipt from a commercial carrier (Federal Express, United Parcel Service, etc.)
 - We recommend that applications sent from overseas be shipped well before December 31 or be sent by express delivery in order to ensure that the application is received in a timely manner.

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships 2013 Grant Guidelines

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are awarded for one academic year of full-time, intensive language study at the advanced level in East or Southeast Asia in approved language programs. For grants to be awarded in 2013, study must start between June 2013 and May 2014.

Grants are highly competitive. In recent years we have been able to fund less than 10% of applicants.

Selection Criteria

- A focused, well-defined career objective involving Asia in which regular use of the language is an important aspect
- The potential to make a significant contribution to a field of study or area of professional or business activity in an Asian country
- Prior experience in the Asian country or involvement or participation in activities related to the country
- Good academic, professional or business background, appropriate to the career program

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for a grant, an applicant must:

- Be pursuing an academic, professional or business career that involves the regular use of a modern East or Southeast Asian language
- Have a college undergraduate degree
- Be at or near an advanced level in the language as defined below in "Definition of Advanced Level" (minimum requirement is fluency equivalent to 3 years of college-level study of the language)
- Be able to devote oneself exclusively to full-time intensive language study during the term of the grant; grants are not made for part-time study or research
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident of the United States

"Professional career" includes, but is not limited to, law, medicine, journalism, science, engineering, architecture, teaching, social work, NGO or government service, etc.

Definition of Advanced Level

An applicant for a Blakemore Freeman Fellowship must have:

- A minimum of three academic years of regular language study at the college level (example: completed 3rd year Chinese); or
- A minimum of one academic year of full-time intensive language study at the college-level.

- Applications for languages which are not commonly taught at U.S. universities will be considered on an individual basis.

If an applicant does not have the required minimum years of academic study of the language, the applicant may provide proof of equivalent competency (see language evaluation form at end of this document that can be used to satisfy this requirement).

Eligible Languages

Chinese	Japanese	Korean	Thai
Vietnamese	Indonesian	Khmer	Burmese

Eligible Language Programs

The Blakemore Foundation awards grants for study only at specific language programs as noted below.

Applicants for Blakemore language grants must apply simultaneously to both the language program involved and to the Blakemore Foundation. Each language program has its own separate due dates and forms, which may be found on its website. Application materials for the Blakemore Foundation's grants are found on the Foundation's website at www.blakemorefoundation.org.

For Japanese, we fund language study at the Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies in Yokohama, Japan (<http://www.stanford.edu/dept/IUC/>). We do not fund Japanese language study at any other institution.

For Chinese, we fund language study at the Inter-University Program for Chinese Language Studies, located on the Tsinghua University campus in Beijing, China (<http://ieas.berkeley.edu/iup/>) and at the International Chinese Language Program at National Taiwan University in Taipei, Taiwan (<http://iclp.ntu.edu.tw/>). We do not fund Chinese language study at any other institution.

For Korean, we recommend language study at Seoul National University (<http://lei.snu.ac.kr/site/en/klec/main/main.jsp>), Yonsei University (<http://www.yskli.com/index.asp>) or Sogang University (<http://klec.sogang.ac.kr/>). We will consider study at other language programs in Korea on a case-by-case basis during the application review process.

Approval of language programs for study of languages of SE Asia will be considered on an individual basis during the application review process.

Application and Acceptance by Language Program

It is the applicant's individual responsibility to apply to the language program which he or she lists on the Blakemore Freeman Fellowship application. The Foundation does not apply for the applicant. Applicants may list only one language program on the application.

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are awarded contingent upon the applicant's unconditional acceptance by the language program for which the fellowship is awarded.

Example: an applicant applying to the IUP-Tsinghua program must successfully pass the IUP's oral exam and not be required by the IUP to complete a summer program as a prerequisite to academic year admission.

No grants are available for study in the United States.

Private Tutorial Programs

If there is no approved advanced-level language program available in a country, an applicant may propose a program combining study in an ordinary language program supplemented by private tutorials. If no language program exists at all in the country, an applicant may propose a program of full-time tutorials.

Length of Program

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are made for one academic year of full-time intensive language study. If funds are available, this may include study in the language program's summer term immediately preceding or following its academic year program. The Foundation encourages applicants who are applying for an academic year program to include a summer term in their application, but cannot guarantee that funding will be available. The inclusion of a summer term in an application does not affect the selection process.

Academic Year	Academic Year plus Summer Program	Summer Study Alone	Program Less than One Academic Year
Yes	Yes	No	No

Extensions of Grants

If funding is available, the Foundation is open to reasonable requests for a grant extension. A request can be made at any time during the course of a grant, explaining the reasons for the extension and accompanied by evidence of good standing in the applicant's current language program. The request may be submitted by email to blakemorefoundation@gmail.com and should be directed to Eugene H. Lee, Trustee.

Please note that we cannot guarantee that funding for grant extensions will be available for the 2013-2014 year.

Dates of Study and Deferral Policy

Study must start between June 2013 and May 2014. No deferrals of grants will be permitted.

Residency Requirement

Blakemore Freeman Fellows are expected to remain in the study country during the entire period of their grant, except in the event of an emergency. Therefore, a Blakemore Freeman Fellow should not plan to return to the United States for Christmas or other holiday periods.

We encourage Blakemore Freeman Fellows to use holidays and school breaks for modest travel within their study country and to participate in other activities to expand their language usage outside the classroom.

Conflicting Activities

Blakemore Freeman Fellows must devote full-time to language study and not engage in any conflicting activities during the period covered by their grant.

Part-time employment, teaching English, extensive research on a dissertation or involvement in other projects which could hamper full-time study are not permitted.

Recreational, educational or cultural activities which do not interfere with full-time study are encouraged, particularly during school and holiday breaks.

U.S. Income Tax Liability

All grant funds from the Blakemore Foundation are taxable for U.S. income tax purposes unless the recipient qualifies for some type of exclusion or deduction.

The treatment of Blakemore language grants for tax purposes is the recipient's individual responsibility. No income tax is withheld from the stipend and grant recipients are responsible for making any required estimated tax payments. Please see IRS Publication 970 Tax Benefits for Education and Form 1040-ES for more information. Because of the variety of individual situations, we recommend applicants discuss their own individual case with a qualified tax advisor.

Amount of Grant & Grant Disbursement

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are intended to cover basic expenses at a graduate student level necessary to pursue an academic year of full-time intensive language study in Asia, including tuition or tutoring fees, plus a stipend for travel, living and study expenses.

Tuition for the language program, and tutoring fees (if applicable) are covered in full.

The stipend for Blakemore Freeman Fellowships may be used for the following types of expenses:

- Round-trip airfare, economy class
- Books and study materials related to language program
- Housing/utilities/cell phone/internet access
- Food and ordinary daily living expenses
- Local commuting
- Travel within country during holidays and school breaks
- Recreational, educational or cultural activities
- Health insurance/medical evacuation insurance
- Immunizations appropriate for country
- Visa application fees
- Income taxes due on taxable portion of grant
- Other fees or expenses required by language program or approved by the Trustee

It is up to each Blakemore Freeman Fellow to budget the stipend funds to cover necessary costs.

Stipend funds may not be used to cover expenses of an accompanying dependent.

The stipend for travel, living and study expenses is disbursed to the Blakemore Freeman Fellow at intervals over the course of the grant. Adjustments to stipend may be considered if exchange rates or living expenses alter significantly during the period covered by the grant.

In the case of grants for the study of Japanese and Chinese, tuition is paid directly to the IUP, the ICLP or the IUC by the Blakemore Foundation. Tuition for study of Korean and languages of SE Asia will be advanced to the grantee, who will provide the Foundation with receipts from the institution. Tutoring fees, if applicable, are reimbursed based on expense reports and receipts.

Required Reports

Blakemore Freeman Fellows must submit a monthly letter reporting on their activities during the preceding month. They must also submit two longer progress reports to the Foundation during their fellowship, the first report being due at mid-year, and a second report at the end of their grant. Financial reports regarding the use of stipend funds on forms provided by the Foundation must also be submitted at intervals during the grant and at the end of a Blakemore Freeman Fellowship. At the end of the grant, the Foundation must be provided with an official transcript from the language program at which the student was enrolled for each academic period covered by the fellowship. The transcript should list courses taken and grades received or progress made.

Blakemore Refresher Grants 2013 Grant Guidelines

Blakemore Refresher Grants are intended to provide mid-career professionals an opportunity to refresh their language skills by attending a full-time language program for a summer or semester.

Grants are highly competitive. In recent years, we have been able to fund less than 10% of applicants.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for a Blakemore Refresher Grant, an applicant must:

- Be a member of one of the following groups:
 - Former Blakemore Freeman Fellows
 - Professors who are teaching in an Asian field at a university or college in the United States
 - Professionals working in an Asian field
- Be pursuing an academic, professional or business career that involves the regular use of a modern East or Southeast Asian language
- Have a college undergraduate degree
- Be at an advanced level in the language
- Be able to devote oneself exclusively to language study during the term of the grant; grants are not made for part-time study or research
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident of the United States

“Professional career” includes, but is not limited to, law, medicine, journalism, science, engineering, architecture, teaching, social work, NGO or government service, etc.

Eligible Languages

Chinese	Japanese	Korean	Thai
Indonesian	Vietnamese	Khmer	Burmese

Selection Criteria

- A focused, well-defined career objective involving Asia in which regular use of the language is an important aspect
- The potential to make a significant contribution to a field of study or area of professional or business activity in an Asian country

- Prior experience in the Asian country or involvement or participation in activities related to the country
- Good academic, professional or business background, appropriate to the career program

Application to Language Program is Applicant's Responsibility

It is the applicant's individual responsibility to apply to the language program listed on the Blakemore Refresher Grant application. The Foundation does not apply for the applicant. Applicants may list only one language program on the application.

Approved Language Programs

Blakemore Refresher Grants will be awarded for a summer or semester of study in an advanced-level language program in Asia.

- For Japanese, we award grants for language study at the Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies in Yokohama, Japan (IUC). We do not fund Japanese language study at other programs.
- For Chinese, we award grants for language study at the Inter-University Program for Chinese Language Studies at Tsinghua University (IUP) or the International Chinese Language Program at National Taiwan University (ICLP). We do not fund Chinese language study at other programs.
- Approval of language study programs for Korean and languages of SE Asia will be considered on an individual basis during the application review process.

Private Tutorial Programs

If there is no appropriate advanced-level language program available in a country, an applicant may propose a program combining study in an ordinary language program supplemented by private tutorials. If no language program exists at all in the country, an applicant may propose a program of full-time tutorials.

Dates of Study and Deferral Policy

Study must start between June 2013 and May 2014. No deferrals of grants will be permitted.

Residency Requirement

Blakemore Fellows are expected to remain in the study country during the entire period of their grant, except in the event of an emergency.

We encourage Blakemore Fellows to use holidays and school breaks for modest travel within their study country and to use these opportunities to expand their language usage outside the classroom.

Conflicting Activities

Blakemore Fellows must devote full-time to language study and not engage in any conflicting activities during the period covered by their grant.

Part-time employment, teaching English, or involvement in other projects which could hamper full-time language study are not permitted.

Recreational, educational or cultural activities which do not interfere with full-time language study are encouraged, particularly during school and holiday breaks.

U.S. Income Tax Liability

All grant funds from the Blakemore Foundation are taxable for U.S. income tax purposes unless the recipient qualifies for some type of exclusion or deduction.

The treatment of Blakemore language grants for tax purposes is the recipient's individual responsibility. No income tax is withheld from the stipend and grant recipients are responsible for making any required estimated tax payments. Please see IRS Publication 970 Tax Benefits for Education and Form 1040-ES for more information. Because of the variety of individual situations, we recommend applicants discuss their own individual case with a qualified tax advisor.

Amount of Grant & Grant Disbursement

Blakemore Refresher Grants are intended to cover basic expenses, at a graduate student level, necessary to pursue full-time intensive language study in Asia, including tuition and approved tutoring fees, plus a stipend for travel, living and study expenses.

Tuition for the language program, and tutoring fees (if applicable) are covered in full.

The stipend for a Refresher Grant may be used for the following types of expenses:

- Round-trip airfare, economy class
- Books and study materials related to language program
- Housing/utilities/cell phone/internet access
- Food and ordinary daily living expenses
- Local commuting
- Travel within country during holidays and school breaks
- Recreational, educational or cultural activities
- Health insurance/medical evacuation insurance
- Immunizations appropriate for country
- Visa application fees
- Income taxes due on taxable portion of grant
- Other fees or expenses required by language program or approved by the Trustee

Stipend funds may not be used to cover expenses of an accompanying dependent.

It is up to each Fellow to budget the stipend funds to cover necessary costs. Adjustments to a stipend may be considered if exchange rates or living expenses alter significantly during the period covered by the grant.

Required Reports

A Blakemore Fellow must submit a monthly letter reporting on activities during the preceding month. At the end of a grant, a Fellow must provide a progress report and submit financial reports regarding the use of stipend funds on forms provided by the Foundation. In addition, the Foundation must be provided with an official transcript from the language program at which a Fellow was enrolled for each academic period covered by a Blakemore Refresher Grant. The transcript should list courses taken and grades received or progress made.
