Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see the instructions for Part III)Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

Thanks to the efforts of Father Michael J. McGivney, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in New Haven and some of his parishioners, the Connecticut state legislature on March 29, 1882, officially chartered the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society. The Order is still true to its founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity. The Knights of Columbus was formed to render financial aid to members and their families. Mutual aid and assistance are offered to sick, disabled and needy members and their families. Social and intellectual fellowship is promoted among members and their families through educational, charitable, religious, social welfare, war relief and public relief works. The KofC have become the world's foremost Catholic fraternal benefit society. The Order has helped families obtain economic security and stability.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 Youth Development Programs, General/Other Family and Youth Activities - Catholic values are rooted in the strong bonds of family life. The Knights of Columbus supports these values through family and youth activities. Substance Abuse - Knights of Columbus members regularly participate in and sponsor programs aimed at combating substance abuse. Councils work with police, youth groups and other organizations to conduct educational programs on the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse. The Knights sponsor poster contests for youth on substance abuse. The Order's youth group, the Columbian Squires, participate in programs that publicize the dangers of drunk driving. The council provided 2,800 volunteer hours supporting youth projects (0 0) (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here

29 Wellness Programs Culture of Life - The Protection Of Human Life The Knights of Columbus is unambiguously and proudly pro-life. In accordance with the teachings of the Catholic Church, the Order defends human life from the moment of conception until natural death. Building a new Culture of Life where every human life is welcomed, respected and protected by law is one of the highest priorities of the Order. Community of Involvement - The history of the Knights of Columbus's involvement in community life is a record of outstanding benevolent achievement. Knights volunteer in a variety of charitable enterprises to serve the people and programs of their communities. Volunteerism informed by Christian concern is the hallmark of the Knights of Columbus. It results in outstanding contributions of time and talent to the Catholic Church, our communities, families, young people and brother Knights. Much of the success of the Order's volunteer record can be attributed to the fact that the Supreme Council does not mandate participation in any volunteer initiative. Fraternal and charitable programs arise at the grassroots level to meet the local needs. As the Order has grown, its benevolence has increased. The Order continues to break all of its previous records for charitable contributions and volunteer service. The results of the Order's annual Survey of Fraternal Activity for the year ending Dec 31, 2010, show that total contributions to charity at all levels reached $155,000,000. In the past decade, Knights raised and donated nearly $1.25 billion to numerous charitable causes and volunteered nearly 400 million hours of service. The council provided 4,400 volunteer hours in supporting community projects. The council provided funds of $3,423 to support community life programs (0 0) (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here

30 Christianity Programs Supporting the Catholic Church has been a hallmark of the Knights of Columbus since its founding in 1882. From funding the restoration of the facade of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome to operating an usher ministry at a local parish, the Knights of Columbus serves the Church in countless ways. Annually, the Order raises and distributes more than $45 million to Church groups in support of programs at the local, national and international levels. Local Knights and their families donate more than 25 million hours of volunteer time to the Church each year. The Knights of Columbus provides support for the Catholic Church in many ways, including the funding of many important parish projects at St. Raymond of Peñafort Church. Supporting vocations to the priesthood and religious life is a top priority of the Knights of Columbus. The council provided 6,750 volunteer hours to support church projects within the parish. Fund raisers sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Council provided funding to St. Raymond church for their debt reduction program, building fund and religious education program (0 0) (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here
