Statement #A

The Rosewood Foundation focuses on local community services and education. The foundation plans to support not-for-profit organizations that provide services, jobs, nutritional food, and education for low income individuals and families from contributions received and the foundation's investments.

While the foundation will consider written grant requests, the primary focus remains supporting non-profit efforts in the local community.

Major Donation :

Hidden Harvest, Coachella, California

Hidden Harvest is a produce recovery program that employs low income farm workers to “rescue” produce that is left behind in the local fields and orchards of the Coachella Valley after the harvest each season. Hidden Harvest then provides this fresh, nutritious produce to thousands of needy families each month by delivering it free of charge to area food banks, soup kitchens, and directly to isolated families in the Coachella Valley.
