Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	Income TaxesFinancial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, CPI is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the organization and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold, the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold. Management believes that CPI has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of December 31, 2012, CPI does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary. CPI has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. This exemption is subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that the organization continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. CPI may periodically receive unrelated business income requiring the organization to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Under such conditions, CPI calculates and accrues the applicable taxes payable.

Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used		Community Partners International requires ongoing feedback in the form of oral and written reports in order to monitor the progress of each grant and related program
Additional Supplemental Information		We believe that healthy families build strong communities. Our support of community-based public health and clinical care in Burma and along its borders reaches more than one million people many of them displaced and living in unstable zones with no other health care available. We focus on evidence-based public health and clinical care initiatives through innovative training and partnership with local health clinics, backpack medics and village-based health workers. Using a train-the-trainers model, we have partnered with 26 partner organizations on malaria, tuberculosis, filariasis (elephantiasis), reproductive health, trauma care, health systems strengthening, childhood immunizations and child nutrition in a country where 1 in 3 children are malnourished. We provide training, technical support and resources to help our partners implement a broad array of initiatives, including clean births and emergency obstetric care for mothers living in remote villages, malaria screening, treatment and prevention for villagers living in a country with the highest number of malaria deaths in Southeast Asia, trauma management in a country with one of the highest number of landmine injuries and deaths in the world, Vitamin A distribution to prevent blindness and help children survive and thrive, health systems strengthening to improve community-based infrastructure and assessment of health needs and services.
