Service and the Franchise Tax Board not to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23709 of the Taxation Code.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by NLSLA in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. NLSLA's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

firm that has been at the forefront of the issues facing low-income residents of Los Angeles County since 1965. Through litigation, advocacy, collaboration, outreach, education and representation, NLSLA effectively helps individuals and families gain the basic needs and opportunities necessary to secure a better life.

Our advocates work with clients, community groups, government agencies and non-profit organizations to secure equal justice and opportunity for low-income residents. We are agents of change, working collaboratively to provide high-quality legal aid to those in need; connecting people with essential support for their physical, social and economic well-being; and playing a key role in the development of policy that empowers low-income families and communities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

poverty and expands access to health, opportunity and justice in Los Angeles' diverse neighborhoods.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: A draft of the proposed Form 990 is fully reviewed by the NLSLA Board of Directors' Finance Committee, chaired by the Board Treasurer. Once approved, the Board Treasurer provides a copy of the proposed Form 990 to the NLSLA Board of Directors Executive Committee for review and approval.
