How is Globe Funded and how are the funds and volunteer contribution efforts used?

Globe Consultative Review Foundation is a volunteer not for profit Delaware Corporation providing World Wide Web reviews and Consultation No one is ever paid directly as an educational Internet World Wide Web resource building network any product recommendation is generic and any Internet based advertising or promotional referral fees goes to maintain and develop this World Wide Web resource base

What Review has Globe performed in its History since its start?

Globe Consultative Review Foundation has offered volunteer consultative review to assist Board Of Directors of Non Profits with media and World Wide Web resources Globe Consultative Review Foundation is an IRS tax exempt foundation for educational purposes The original non profit material reviewed following September 11 2001 during the year 2002 was generic on KI using the resources available then within the United States Government Federal Agencies websites Since that time media monitoring has included radio-active safety including for example a Public Broadcasting Service Children's Hospital feature which had KI as part of an emergency readiness kit for the family These and other submissions of features are contributed on a volunteer basis as an ongoing data base and network summary offerings

In recent years there has been more local and United States of America State wide information on emergency readiness and policies or opinions on the need or use of KI based on the type of incidence or distance to and or type of radiological exposure Weather and especially winds are other considerations remember 2011 Japan? Or the current Israeli Iran
