Surfing Heritage has a temporary exhibition area where we rotate 4 different exhibits related to surf culture every year. As Surfing Heritage has members that receive free admission and is open to the public, we like to keep the interest of our followers by changing the rotating surf culture exhibit quarterly. Our public outreach included several events such as book signings, lectures, and movie premieres. Continuing our efforts to build and maintain an archive of the history of the sport and culture of wave riding as recorded by photography and oral histories. Surfing Heritage continues hosted and individual tours of extensive historic surfboard archive and photo collection to students and surfing enthusiasts. This committee develops curriculum for the educational community in California and beyond. Surfing
