	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The financial statements are presented to the Board of Directors where they are approved. The 990 is then signed by the executive director on the behalf of the Board of Directors.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The board of directors meets and creates the compensation policy for the executive director. This process was last undertaken for the executive director in 2010. Each December, the board of directors reviews a list of different alternatives of pay increases for the year. These pay increases are based on the prior year's raises, the increase in insurance rates and the ambulance company's cash flow for the year. The board then votes on the best alternative and records their choice in their monthly minutes.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	KB Ambulance Corps, Inc. makes their governing documents and financial statements available to the public upon request. They do not currently have a formal written conflict of interest policy.
