1. Scholarships are granted to all seniors of Hot Springs High School and requests from other schools are considered, for all who submit a written resume to Moose Lodge 2050.

Scholarships for individuals other than graduating seniors may also be considered. All requests are subject to review and approval of the Board of Officers, and the Charity Committee, with final approval for the expenditure voted on at a regular meeting of the lodge membership. All scholarship awards for graduating seniors are in the amount of $500.00 per individual.

Other scholarship amounts vary based upon request and individual's need. Some students may receive an additional scholarship, awarded by the Lodge Moose Legion Committee, who raise their own committee funds through various fund-raising projects. Scholarships for individual students are written and sent directly to the college or vocational school's Financial Aid Department, upon receiving verification of enrollment, to be deposited into that student's account; no scholarships are awarded directly to the individual. Donations are also provided to other organizations within the state of NM and their fund-raising campaigns to assist them with their scholarship programs. Donations may also be made to the Arizona/New Mexico Moose Association for its scholarship program.

2. Requests for individual assistance with medical and other bills are reviewed individually and assistance is awarded or denied based on circumstances and financial need.

3. Baskets of food are donated to needy families and individuals at Thanksgiving. Names are gathered through various income support agencies.
