Primary Exempt Purpose and Program Service Accomplishments

Provide music education for all children regardless of race, cultural, or economic background.

During the year, the Chorus provided music education in a choral setting for children from all racial, cultural and economic backgrounds. Primary expenses were incurred by providing teaching services of experienced and certified teachers.

The children were given the opportunity to perform what they had learned before many audiences in many venues. These performances enhanced their self-esteem with enhanced personality and social contacts witnessed by family, teachers and the community.

Children without economic resources were provided with scholarships. No child who was qualified by objective music standards and met the rules of conduct were denied the opportunity to participate.
