Part IIIStatement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1Briefly describe the organization’s mission

Gustavus Adolphus College is a church-related, residential liberal arts college firmly rooted in its Swedish and Lutheran heritage. The College offers students of high aspiration and promise a liberal arts education of recognized excellence provided by faculty who embody the highest standards of teaching and scholarship. The College aspires to be a community of persons from diverse backgrounds who respect and affirm the dignity of all people. It is a community where a mature understanding of the Christian faith and lives of service are nurtured and students are encouraged to work toward a just and peaceful world. The purpose of a Gustavus education is to help students attain their full potential as persons, to develop in them a capacity and passion for lifelong learning, and to prepare them for fulfilling lives of leadership and service in society.

2Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

If “Yes,” describe these new services on Schedule O

3Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

| SchC_P2B_S00_L01 | Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1 | Gustavus Adolphus College is a member of Minnesota Private College Council (MPCC), an organization described in section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. MPCC is an association of private nonprofit institutions of higher education that serves a variety of its members' shared needs, including, but not only, nonpartisan and non-electoral advocacy for public policy that meets students' needs and advances the interests of private higher education. Gustavus Adolphus College paid membership dues to MPCC in the amount of $163,467 during the taxable year. MPCC has divided its expenses for its taxable year ending June 30, 2013, into two groups. Group 1 consists of those expenses that did not in any way support attempts to influence legislation within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code ("lobbying"), and Group 2 consists of all other expenses. Group 2 includes many expenses, such as personnel costs, that supported both lobbying and nonlobbying activities. MPCC did not attempt to allocate the Group 2 expenses between lobbying and nonlobbying activities. MPCC has determined that the amount of the Group 2 expenses represents 52.67% of the amount of the dues that MPCC collected in the same taxable year. Assuming that all Group 2 expenses were paid from member dues, and allocating those expenses pro rata based on the dues paid by each member, $86,098 of Gustavus Adolphus College's dues were used to pay Group 2 expenses. The amount of lobbying expenses paid from Gustavus Adolphus College's dues was significantly less than that amount. |

The College is also exempt from state income tax. However, any unrelated business income may be subject to taxation. The College follows the accounting standards for contingencies in evaluating uncertain tax positions. This guidance prescribes recognition threshold principles for the financial statement recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return that are not certain to be realized. No liability has been recognized by the College for uncertain tax positions as of May 31, 2013 or 2012. The College's tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. The tax returns for the current year as well as fiscal years 2010 through 2012 are open to examination by federal and state authorities. The most significant areas that potentially subject the College to unrelated business income tax include conferences and events, athletic space and various services provided by the dining service, post office and central duplicating services to the public. At May 31, 2013 and 2012, the College has no current obligation for unrelated business income tax. |

| SchI_P01_S00_L02 | Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 | Gustavus offers both merit-based and need-based scholarship assistance. Merit-based scholarships do not require a student to demonstrate financial eligibility and must be awarded during the Admission process. They also may be awarded as part of a need-based financial aid package. To be renewed the student needs to maintain the established minimum standards. Need-based scholarships are offered to students who demonstrate financial eligibility by filing the FAFSA. The offered amounts can vary from year to year as determined by the family's Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) on the FAFSA and availability of funds. The Registrar's office monitors any changes to a student's enrollment status. Any changes are communicated to the Student Accounts Office and the Financial Aid Office to ensure funds are being properly disbursed. | F990_P06_S0B_L12c | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | The College has a written conflict of interest policy that pertains to its employees. This policy is one of several "All College Policies" that are published on the College's website. The conflict of interest policy is designed to help officers and employees of the College identify situations that present potential conflicts of interest, along with following written procedures in the event that there is a conflict of interest. The policy is intended to comply with the procedure prescribed in Minnesota Statutes, Section 317A.255, and governing conflicts of interest to nonprofit corporations. The President and the Vice President for Finance and Treasurer monitor and enforce the College's conflict of interest policy relating to its employees. In addition, a questionnaire that was prepared by legal counsel is completed by all officers and key employees on an annual basis that documents any activity that could give rise to conflicts of interest. These questionnaires are reviewed by the President and the Vice President for Finance and Treasurer. The College has a separate written conflict of interest policy that pertains to all members of the Board of Directors. The policy discloses the importance of exercising integrity and objectivity in making decisions. It further provides disclosure requirements and procedures for abstaining and documentation of meeting minutes when there is a conflict of interest. At the beginning of May 2012, the Chair of the Board of Directors requested that the President's Office distribute this policy to all Directors, along with an annual representation letter, indicating that the director has read, understands and discloses whether or not there are any circumstances leading to a conflict of interest. At the May 21, 2012 Board of Directors meeting, the Chair of the Board of Directors requested that all Directors read the conflict of interest policy, determine if they had any questions, and complete the annual representation letter on a timely basis. From a governance perspective, the Directorship Committee of the Board of Directors is specifically charged with overseeing compliance with this policy (page two of the Directorship Committee Charter). Chairs of individual committees are charged with following the procedures for voting when there is a conflict of interest, along with documentation of those procedures in the meeting minutes. All Directors complete the questionnaire described above in the first paragraph and return them to the Vice President for Finance and Treasurer. |
