Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used		Potential grant recipients complete application forms specific to particular grant funding sources. The Financial Aid office reviews applications to assure that eligibility requirements such as GPA, credit hours, residency and enrollment status are met. Student applicants receive an award letter identifying the funding programs and award amounts are applied as non-cash credit to student accounts receivable to further assure that proceeds are utilized for the intended purposes. The Registrar's office provides information such as withdrawal notices to facilitate the Financial Aid office in periodically monitoring eligibility criteria and assuring that funds not utilized for the intended purpose are returned to the original funding program.
