Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

To prepare students to become fully participating citizens and productive members of our economy by providing them with an understanding of the American economic system and an ability to make sound economic decisions

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If “Yes,” describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 250,004 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 29,850)

Teacher Training K-12 educators in Arkansas are required to have 60 hours per year of professional development training, and we are certified by the Arkansas Department of Education to provide these hours through our workshops and in-service training to schools We host multi-day workshops in the summer, plus training throughout the school year We are affiliated with six university centers of economic education, who we partner with to host many of these workshops The centers are listed on our website - www.economicsarkansas.org

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 130,878 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 103,060)

The Stock Market Game(TM) Each school year, we host 2, 10 week sessions - one in the fall and one in the spring Student teams are registered by their teachers to participate and are given a $100,000 hypothetical portfolio to invest over a ten-week time frame Students trade "live" in the stock market during each session, and the goal is to grow their portfolio as much as possible This standards-based game integrates technology, math, social studies, higher level thinking, team building and economics into one engaging learning tool for teachers It is our largest student based program with over 11,000 participating last year

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 74,228 including grants of $ 17,501) (Revenue $ 28,760)

Teacher grants and awards program Each year teachers are invited to apply for grant funding so they can integrate economics and personal finance projects in the classroom Teachers who receive grant funding then submit their projects for judging in the summer, and we select up to 18 winners statewide to be honored during our annual Bessie B Moore Awards Program and Luncheon These educators are going "above and beyond" to integrate economics into the classroom, and we believe it is important the teachers are recognized for their outstanding work to increase the economic literacy of their students

(Code) (Expenses $ 126,750 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 5,378)

Other programs offered by Economics Arkansas include Economics/Personal Finance Challenge, CEE/NAEE Dues, and the Economics Calendar Program The Economics/Personal Finance Challenge program offers an opportunity for teams of High School students to compete in a contest of economics or personal finance knowledge and understanding The CEE/NAEE dues provide benefits such as discounts on economic education materials, information on national awards for exemplary economic education programs, priority access to regional and national economic education conferences and opportunities to participate in national program initiatives The Economics Calendar Program encourages students in Kindergarten through 8th grade to take out their crayons and colored pencils to submit drawings of economic concepts they've learned in the classroom A celebration of our 50th Anniversary was held at the Governors Mansion highlighting our accomplishments to date In addition, a small publication was produced and distributed to educate our constituents regarding programs and services offered to Arkansas teachers and students throughout our existence Nine board members were honored for their service of 25 years plus A luncheon featuring a national renown economist was hosted in Northwest Arkansas raising awareness of our organization, plus educating those attending on the benefits of free enterprise in our market economy
