| Tax Status                        | Schedule D, Part X, Line 2    | U S generally accepted accounting principles require management to evaluate uncertain tax positions taken by the University. The financial statement effects of a tax position are recognized when the position is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, to be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service or Treasury. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the University and has concluded that as of May 31, 2013, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken. The University has recognized no interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The University is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. Management also believes the University is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2010. |

Part II Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employees. Use duplicate copies if additional space is needed.

For each individual whose compensation must be reported in Schedule J, report compensation from the organization on row (i) and from related organizations, described in the instructions, on row (ii). Do not list any individuals that are not listed on Form 990, Part VII.

Note. The sum of columns (B)(i)-(iii) for each listed individual must equal the total amount of Form 990, Part VII, Section A, line 1a, applicable column (D) and (E) amounts for that individual.

| Compensation to president             | Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a | On-campus residence is provided to Dr. Louis J. Agnese, Jr., president. This benefit is not included as taxable compensation on his W-2 because this is a requirement of the university, other than $1,800 which represents 5% of the fair market value of the residence as required by the Internal Revenue Code.                                                                             |
| Compensation to Sr. Kathleen Coughlin | Schedule J, Part II         | Sister Kathleen Coughlin, who is listed as a key employee on Part VII, receives compensation, but her compensation is paid directly to the religious congregation and not to her individually. Since this compensation goes to her congregation, there are no taxable wages reported on a W-2. For informational purposes, compensation paid from the organization on her behalf was $207,806. |

| Conflict of interest                | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | Trustees and the executive council of the university are required to complete and sign a conflict of interest policy on an annual basis at the June board meeting. It is the continuing responsibility of the board members, executives, and officers to scrutinize their transactions and outside business interests and relationships for potential conflicts and to immediately make such disclosures to the board of trustees. The interested person shall leave the board meeting while the financial interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board members or committee shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. Affected board members abstain from voting when there is a conflict of interest.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
