1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

The Junior League of Houston, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. The League has been "Building A Better Community" by addressing community needs, including basic needs, abuse of women and children, healthcare, education and cultural enrichment.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 3,750,989 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 3,773,598)

Tea Room. The Junior League of Houston, Inc. established its first community project as a well-baby clinic for indigent children that would eventually grow into today's Junior League Health Care Clinic at the world-renowned Texas Children's Hospital. To fund this important endeavor, members formed a Luncheon Club - the genesis of today's Tea Room. The Tea Room supports the League's exempt purposes by serving as a training facility where members are educated in the discipline of service, which is then carried into the various community service projects which the League undertakes. The training and education afforded by the Tea Room enables members to be more effective and efficient community volunteers. The Tea Room exclusively serves its patron members and their guests.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 908,054 including grants of $ 758,148) (Revenue $)

Community Programs and Community Support Services. Community projects are the main focus of The Junior League of Houston, Inc. The League serves individuals in need through more than 38 community projects addressing a broad spectrum of needs in Houston and surrounding areas. Many of these programs are initiated by the League and fully supported through League volunteers and funding. League volunteers serve many people - infants, children, women in crisis, families and the elderly, in many places - hospitals, museums, camps and schools, and in many capacities - docents, mentors and program facilitators. During the 2012 - 2013 fiscal year, the League gave approximately $2 million in volunteer time and direct financial support through grants, collaborative efforts and community projects.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 335,359 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Membership Services, Training and Education. The Junior League of Houston, Inc.'s membership is over 5,000 strong. In addition to community volunteer placements, active and provisional League members attend a required number of general membership meetings each year. League members receive ongoing volunteer training and attend a variety of other meetings to include council, education, leadership/training, community placement and committee meetings. League members create a newsletter, calendar of events, magazine and directory as well as maintain a comprehensive website. The goal of membership training and education is to further the mission of the League in developing the potential of women and training volunteers for effective action and leadership in the community.
