(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

FPA Experience, the annual conference, is an organization-wide effort that is the single largest non-dues revenue source for the association. The event spotlights FPA's core competencies of Knowledge, Community, Advocacy and Leadership. The program offers many educational tracks, an exhibit hall, and various pre-conferences in conjunction with the annual conference. Various FPA member communities gather to network, share best practices and connect with like-minded members.

(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Member Relations. The FPA Member Relations department ensures that existing and prospective members are fully aware of all of the benefits that the Financial Planning Association makes available to support financial planners and their practices. These benefits include consumer education and awareness of the value of financial planning as well as advocacy on behalf of the profession. Benefits also include knowledge in terms of tools, resources, ongoing certification education and technical journals to improve communication with their clients, increase efficiency and effectiveness in their practice and to help them advance in their chosen career. Member Relations is also responsible for serving members by answering their questions and addressing their concerns as well as ensuring that they are taking full advantage of their member benefits.

(Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

FPA Retreat is a long-standing, non-traditional gathering of the FPA community. It is an event that attracts the "best and brightest" of the profession due to its level of intimacy, community learning and advanced, cutting edge content. The conference provides opportunities for networking, advanced education, and exposure to new theories and best practices.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed by the Director of Finance and the Accounting Manager. It is then made available to the board for their review prior to being filed with the IRS.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	On an annual basis, the directors and officers of the organization are required to disclose any conflicts of interest (actual, apparent, or potential) and agree to comply with the organization's conflict of interest policy. Upon disclosure of a potential conflict of interest and all material facts to the independent members of the board, and after any discussion with the interested persons, the independent board members shall discuss and decide if a conflict of interest exists. After exercising due diligence, the independent board members shall determine whether or not a conflict of interest is present. As part of that determination, the independent board members will decide whether the transaction or arrangement is in the organization's best interest, for the organization's benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable to the organization.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The CEO's compensation is determined through ASAE guidelines and surveys and then reviewed and approved by the independent members of the Board. Salaries of other officers and key employees are determined using ASAE guidelines and surveys, then reviewed and approved by the CEO. Board deliberations regarding compensation, as well as all votes held, are recorded in the minutes. Compensation packages are reviewed on an annual basis for appropriateness.
