Maine FamiliesMaine Families features a variety of programs designed to support present and future parents One component of the program offers a community based, universal home visiting program designed to support new and expectant parents Families are offered support from a parent partner who makes regular home visits This partnership may continue from pregnancy or birth until the child reaches kindergarden age Parent partners share information, educational resources and knowledge about community services Through the parenting education program, healthy families is able to provide prevention initiative, parent supports and education groups and to develop and maintain community responsive programs to residents throughout Cumberland County Cumberland County Crisis ResponseCumberland County Crisis Response (CCCR) is located at 50 Monument Square in Portland, Maine Services include 774-HELP, a 24/7 crisis hotline and mobile outreach (MO) a service that provides face to face crisis assessments and disposition determination CCCR also provides mental health police liaison services, working with police in crisis situations and acute care services (ACS) that may include some or all of the following brief therapy services, crisis resource counselor services and/or the services of an outpatient psychiatrist Children's crisis services are also provided via CCCR Treatment Foster CareFoster care services provide specialized foster homes for hard to place youth with severe emotional and behavioral problems Individuals with education, training and experience relevant to the specialized needs of these youth are recruited They, too, participate in the foster care support and training sponsored by Youth Alternatives Ingraham Mediation ServicesWhen no words seem to help, Mediation Services offers families and communities ways to solve issues that cause pain, separation and conflict Trained volunteer mediators help communities and families learn how to listen to each others concerns, find fair solutions to current issues and learn new ways to resolve future conflicts From the first phone call through the entire process, a case coordinator helps the family or community by providing information, referrals and support Homeless Youth ServicesHomeless Youth Services provide safety assessments and case management to homeless youth and youths in need of service Case managers perform intensive outreach to this population to ensure the safety of those on the street and helping to move them into safer environments Detention ResponseA community based program that provides support, monitoring and intensive case management services to at-risk youth involved in the juvenile justice system that would be detained at Long Creek Youth Center or shortening their detainment While focusing on rehabilitation, case managers work intensively with the youth's family, address individual behaviors, mental health issues and substance abuse problems They help the youth return to school, improve relationships, build self-esteem and prepare for employment when appropriate Children's Advocacy Council (Advocacy & Prevention)Through leadership, advocacy, community education and professional training, the council mobilized the community to take responsibility for the well being of children and families and to prevent child abuse and neglect Services include advocacy and networking initiatives in collaboration with other child serving agencies, training to mandated reporters, community organizations and others, and serving as an information clearinghouse on child abuse prevention Parenting education programs providing information, training and resources to community groups schools and individuals on nurturing and child rearing are also offeredMultidimensional Treatment Foster CareMultidimensional Treatment Foster Care (MTFC) is an alternative to corrections and group care facilities As researched and developed by the Oregon Social Learning Center, MTFC places juvenile offenders who need residential treatment with foster families who are trained to provide close supervision, fair limits, consistent consequences and a supportive relationship Research on MTFC programs in this country has proven it to be a cost effective and efficacious approach Within the MTFC model, a youth's program can be individualized to fit his or her needs, challenges and strengths Rather than placing them in group settings, MTFC places carefully selected youth in a family setting away from peers who have similar problems and may provide negative influence This promotes learning and adjustment within a normalizing family setting Children's Case Management ProgramThe Children's Case Management Program is intended to be grounded in the wraparound process and to embrace the concept of child and family centered planning Case managers assist families to enhance their independence and self-determination in meeting the therapeutic needs of the child The case managers serve small areas in both York and Cumberland counties Young Parent ProgramA parenting education program for young parents who are pregnant, parenting, and or working on reunification, we partner with young parents to support healthy attachments, child development, and connection to community The Community Outreach portion of this program provides community outreach for parents 22 and under which includes family centered case management, prenatal education, infant and toddler development, and parenting classes The transitional housing portion of this program is open to people ages 22 and under who are currently homeless It includes transitional living with 6 apartments, home visits, parenting classes, access to support groups, educational, vocational, and housing resources, counseling and case management, as well as referrals EdgewoodA six bed residential treatment program for youth ages 16 to 21 who are attempting to become more independent within the community as adults Community Support ServicesAdult case management services for adults with mental illness or co-occurring disorder of a mental illness and a substance abuse disorder Service planning is individualized to the client needs and desires Treatment is outcome focused and builds on the client's existing strengths in developing new skills for maintaining New Program Services	Form 990, Part III, line 2	Youth Alternatives Ingraham was dissolved and all programs and activities were merged into The Opportunity Alliance
		Outpatient/Medication Management Youth Alternatives Ingraham provides outpatient clinic services at our 50 Monument Square location with a staff of four psychiatrists and four psychiatric nurse practitioners. This clinic provides services for children, adolescents and adults. Services include medication management and individual counseling for youth and adults with mental illness. In addition to the services delivered at 50 Monument Square, services are provided at the Preble Street Resource Center, the Teen Center located in Portland and at Youth Alternatives Ingraham's administrative offices at 50 Lydia Lane in South Portland. Broadway Crossing A short term crisis stabilization unit providing a therapeutic alternative to hospitalization for adults experiencing a mental health crisis. 2-1-1 Maine Maine's health and human services information and referral system, a statewide resource directory of over 9,000 resources. Juvenile Behavioral Health Comprehensive clinical services to youth ages 11 to 20 residing at the Long Creek Youth Development Center and the their family members. Treatment aims to reduce recidivism and decrease juvenile's antisocial or pro-criminal attitudes and disruptive behavior, while improving family relationships. Linkage Project A statewide advocacy and education campaign designed to increase individual and community awareness of the strong link between human cruelty and animal violence. Supported Visits Program Provides supervised visitation for child protective clients in York County. Visitations take place in a safe and secure environment which may include a home or community setting. The supervision of family visits consists of skilled observation and assessment of parent-child(ren)'s interaction and includes modeling/teaching parenting skills by a trained Visitation Support Worker. These services are ordered by the district courts. State Street House The U.S. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) has awarded a grant of $1,000,000 to The Recovery Center at Mercy Hospital and its Consortium partners- Youth Alternatives Ingraham (YI) and Crossroads for Women (CW)- to develop an innovative residential services model for the Portland area. YI's portion of this program is housed on State Street, the former site of the Helen Winslow Ray House. State Street House will provide 24-hour support for homeless men with co-occurring disorders in early recovery to remain sober and engaged in treatment. Heath House A comprehensive service providing 24-hour care and supervision to people with a developmental disability that results in a significant functional limitation in major life activities. The program provides residential care and community inclusion support, which includes health and medical care, behavioral support, personal care, recreation, psychological services and community integration. Spiral Arts Art classes, workshops, and retreats welcome adults and children from all walks of life and ethnic backgrounds to express their unique voices through the visual arts, music, culinary arts, and dance.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The draft is reviewed by the CFO. The draft is then presented to the Finance Committee by the audit firm. The Finance Committee reviews and makes a recommendation to the full Board of Trustees to approve. The Board of Trustees approves.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy or ethics policy is reviewed annually. Statements are sent annually to the Board of Trustees and are signed, returned, and maintained on file. Statements are reviewed by the President and Chair of the Board.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Human Resources is responsible for maintaining current tools to measure market value compensation including surveys at the national, state and industry level. Job descriptions are assigned to various ranges of pay using a matrix that measures responsibility/complexity of job function. Changes to base pay are non-routine and supported with documentation. Supervisors approve compensation. Annually, the Executive Committee acts as a Compensation Committee to review compensation of the President and makes a recommendation to the Board of Trustees, who approves.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The bylaws, governing policies and audited financial statements are maintained at the administrative offices and are provided to the public upon request.
