The College will receive a Federal Form K-1 each period reporting rental income that passes through to the College. The College's involvement is purely passive in nature and no unrelated business income is expected from the partnership. This passive activity is insignificant to the overall operations of the college, provides a small passive revenue stream to the College, helped relieve the College of unusable land and provides the Manchester community an opportunity to build housing near the College. The Board of Trustees and management approved all of the transactions leading up to the College's involvement in the partnership, all negotiations conducted at arms-length and fair value.
