SchD_P03_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The college's collection items include rare books, historical artifacts and art work that are used for scholarly research, public exhibitions and to document the history of the college.
SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The college's endowment funds provide income and support for the furtherance of the educational mission of the college in accordance with the donors' intentions. The majority of the permanent endowment is held for scholarship, teaching, and program expenses.
SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The college accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. The college has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as its only significant tax position, however, the college has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The college is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdictions. The college's Federal and state tax returns are generally open for examination for three years following the date filed.

The policy and conflict of interest disclosure statement is sent to all officers and trustees on an annual basis. The completed forms are reviewed by the Chair of the Board of Trustees, the Vice President for Finance and Administration and the President, who determine if an actual or potential conflict exists. Officers and trustees recuse themselves from discussion and voting on any matters where a conflict exists.

F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Wheaton College Executive Committee, an independent board, establishes compensation to ensure that the Internal Revenue Code provision of "rebuttable presumption of reasonableness" is met and "intermediate sanctions" are not incurred. The Executive Committee obtains and relies upon appropriate data regarding comparability of the compensation package prior to making its determination. Appropriate data includes compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations, independent compensation surveys by nationally recognized independent firms, and written offers from similar institutions competing for the services of the individual. The Executive Committee documents the basis for its determinations including the terms of the approved transaction and date approved, the members of the committee who were present during the discussion, and the data obtained and relied upon.
