Applications are sent to the seminaries and the Financial Aid Officer decides which students' needs are the greatest and gives out application instructions to students who access the forms on our website. SIM gets applications back in mid-March along with any backup showing financial needs of the candidate and reference letters.

Each member of the SIM Scholarship Committee is given copies of the completed applications from an individual seminary, and scholarship needs of the seminarians are reviewed by them. The Committee then meets as a whole and each member gives his or her recommendations for the consideration of the entire committee. If a seminarian is awarded a scholarship, an award letter is issued to the student, with
