Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Financial Statement Footnote	Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The School's collections comprise rare instruments and music manuscripts that are held for educational and curatorial purposes. Each of the items are catalogued, preserved and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections generally are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections. The collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the School's inception, are not recognized as assets on the balance sheet. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the period in which the items are acquired, or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributed collection items are not reflected in the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The value of the School's collections is periodically estimated for insurance purposes. Description of Organization's Collection Schedule D, Part III, Line 4. The School's collections include rare musical instruments and historic music manuscripts. Access to these collections provides exceptional educational opportunities to the students attending the School as they prepare for professional careers in the performing arts. Additionally, the collections are held for curatorial purposes, as their preservation and ongoing care is essential to ensuring access to them by future generations of students and scholars. On occasion in connection with a relevant performance, lecture, or presentation, the viewing area for the collection items is opened so visitors to the School may view the items.
Intended Uses of Endowment Funds	Schedule D, part V, LIne 4	The School's endowment consists of approximately 500 individual funds established for a variety of purposes including scholarships and student aid, educational programs, and other purposes in support of the School's mission.
Income Taxes	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The School recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those tax positions are more likely than not to be sustained. Income generated from activities unrelated to the school's exempt purpose is subject to tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 511. The School did not recognize any unrelated business income tax liability for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2		As federally mandated, the School prepares annually a student cost of attendance budget, which includes tuition, room and board, and an estimate for the cost of books, supplies, transportation and personal expenses. The School then awards federal, state and institutional aid based upon the cost of attendance and the family's expected contribution, as determined by the federal need analysis formula. Students do not receive funding in excess of the cost of attendance and in cases where outside grants are received, student self-help aid (i.e. loans and work-study) is reduced first to ensure that aid is not over-awarded. Student must document additional educationally-related expenses in order to receive funding above their unmet need.

Schedule J, part I, Line 1		The School on extremely infrequent occasions provides non-coach (generally business-class, although first-class may be used if business-class is unavailable) travel for its officers for travel to international destinations, in accordance with the School's policy. Such travel is in direct support of the School's educational and performance programs (such as, for example, an international performance tour of the student orchestra). Also, on occasion the School provides transportation for the spouse of the President to attend, on behalf of the School, functions or other events together with the President in direct support and furtherance of the School's mission. Seven individuals listed in Part VII, Section A have access to a discretionary fund for costs incurred in support of the School's educational and artistic purposes. Such costs must be documented and must be in compliance with the School's policies regarding allowable business expenses. Finally, in accordance with the terms of his employment, the President has non-exclusive access to use an apartment within the School's residence facility. However, his actual use of the apartment is extremely infrequent, and he did not use it for personal use during the reporting period. The apartment is used primarily to house visiting teachers and artists engaged to teach at the School and is occupied for most of the year for this purpose.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3		An employment contract is executed between the School and its President, the terms of which are subject to review by the Board of Trustees. At the end of the contract's term, when deciding the terms under which the contract may be renewed or extended, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees, with the assistance of an outside compensation expert, conducts research among peer institutions and documents the findings and decisions reached. The compensation of officers and other key employees is reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee prior to the start of each fiscal year, and questions, objections, and the resolution of each is documented.

Schedule R, Part V		Under an arrangement between the trustees of the institute of musical art of the city of New York ("the IMA") and the Juilliard School ("the School"), the income from all investments of the IMA is used to support the School's operations. Certain trustees and employees of the school serve as trustees of the IMA, and certain paid employees of the School provide administrative and recordkeeping services for the IMA. There are no reimbursements or cash transfers between the IMA and the school for these services. In 2002, the trustees of the ima delegated investment management authority over the IMA's assets (an investment portfolio) to the school, and the IMA transferred its assets (in cash) to the school. These funds were commingled with the School's investment portfolio, although the IMA remains a separate legal entity and separate fund records are maintained to record IMA activities. The management of the IMA's investment portfolio and the method used to determine investment returns available for spending are identical to those of the school. The value of the IMA's assets at June 30, 2013 was approximately $9.9 Million. The IMA's net of investment returns was -$745,959 for the year ended June 30, 2013.
