within the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Under Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Section 740, the tax status of tax-exempt entities is an uncertain tax position, since events could potentially occur that jeopardize the tax-exempt status. Management of North Star Fund is not aware of any events that could jeopardize the tax-exempt status. Therefore, no liability or provision for income tax has been reflected in the financial statements. North Star Fund's federal exempt organization tax returns for the years ended June 30, 2010, 2011 and 2012 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after they are filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

North Star Fund is New York's community foundation supporting grassroots groups leading the movement for equality, economic justice and peace. By organizing donors, raising money for grants, and providing technical assistance, we support efforts ranging from better schools, housing and health care, to protecting civil liberties, creating living wage jobs, and advocating for peace, freedom and human rights.

North Star Fund supports grassroots activism and organizing to achieve social justice and the common good. Our core grantmaking program provides support grants of $5,000, $10,000 and $15,000 to social change organizations in New York City. North Star Fund has two grant cycles per year, one in the Spring with a deadline on or about February 15th and one in the Fall with a deadline on or about September 15th. Applications are accepted beginning one month before the deadline. Visit our website at www.northstarfund.org for the guidelines, application form and instructions.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

In 1979, a network of 28 young visionaries established North Star Fund - a foundation that forged a new approach to giving. Inspired by the era's movements for social justice, they created a collaborative, activist-led philanthropy. For three decades, North Star Fund has remained an agile, community-driven foundation. Since 1979, it has distributed more than $35 million to over 1,700 groups to fund innovative community organizing and grassroots activism. North Star Fund operates administrative offices in New York, NY. It is supported primarily through contributions and investment income.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Through funding programs in New York City, North Star Fund seeks to contribute to a transformed society by: an equitable distribution of wealth and resources, both within and beyond our national boundaries; the realization of democratic process through the exercise of political power by historically disempowered peoples and communities; the well-being of people and the environment placed above profit; an end to oppression and exploitation of people everywhere; peaceful and just settlements of conflict; freedom from institutional, cultural, and economic discrimination based on class, race, gender, age, disability, religion, or sexual orientation; and an affirmation of diversity, and respect for the dignity and inherent value of all individuals.

Grantmaking programs include: Supporting innovation: Our activist-led Community Funding Committee awards grants to New York's most effective and creative social change groups. Developing skills: Grantees learn financial management, fundraising, board development, and more through technical assistance programs. Movement building: North Star Fund links groups to share vision, strategy, and resources to build movements with deeper impact.

Donor programs include: A philanthropy committed to change: North Star Fund connects people with wealth to grassroots activism that challenges the root causes of social problems. Organize donors to reflect our region: Innovative programs engage people who give inherited wealth and earned income, professionals of color, and LGBT donors.

Donor advised services: North Star Fund draws on its deep knowledge of community issues and its management expertise to help individuals, families, and foundation partners develop effective grantmaking strategies. Beyond giving: Through publications and workshops, it builds knowledge of socially responsible investing and progressive estate planning.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2012, North Star Fund became the fiscal sponsor for the Communities United for Police Reform (CPR) campaign. CPR brings together a diverse array of current and former North Star Fund grantees in a multi-year campaign to end discriminatory policing practices in New York. It builds on the strength of a diverse coalition of community members, lawyers, researchers and activists to work for community alternatives to top down policing and for restorative criminal justice. As the fiscal sponsor, North Star Fund provides a way for interested donors to provide tax deductible support to the campaign, charitable compliance, and administrative and financial support.

In February 2013, North Star Fund publically launched a $7 million capital campaign for operations and growth called Activism's Future: Campaign for Philanthropic and Grassroots Leadership. Designed to connect philanthropic donors to community organizers with increased grantmaking to support grassroots victories, Activism's Future will also position North Star Fund as a thought leader among organizations committed to funding innovative solutions to intractable social justice issues. It will also enable North Star Fund to take new leadership on strategic communications and expand its renewed commitment to compelling donor networking and learning and sharing opportunities to increase the numbers of progressive givers donating through North Star Fund.
