BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

Offices

Section 1. The office of the corporation shall be located in the City, County and State of New York.

Section 2. The corporation may also have offices at such other places, both within and without the State of New York, as the board of directors may from time to time determine, or the activities of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

Annual Meetings of Members

Section 1. All meetings of members for the election of directors shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such place as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

Section 2. Annual meetings of members shall be held on the third Tuesday in September, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the next secular day following, at 4:30 P. M., or at such other time and place as shall be determined by the board of directors, at which they shall elect, by a plurality vote, a board of directors, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 3. Written or printed notice of the annual meeting, stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by, or at the direction of, the president, the secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 4. The board of directors shall present at each annual meeting of members its reports, which shall set forth the statements and be verified or certified in the manner prescribed by Sections 513 and 519 of the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE III

Special Meetings of Members

Section 1. Special meetings of members may be held at such time and place, within or without the State of New York, as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting, or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Special meetings of the members, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the certificate of incorporation, may be called by the president, the board of directors, or not less than twenty-five percent of all the members entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 3. Written or printed notice of a special meeting, stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting by, or at the direction of, the president, the secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting. The notice shall also indicate that it is being issued by, or at the direction of, the person calling the meeting.

Section 4. The business transacted at any special meeting of members shall be limited to the purposes stated in the notice.

ARTICLE IV

Determination of Members; Quorum and Voting of Members

Section 1. The members of the corporation shall be those persons who are the voting members of the Board of Governors, and the President, of The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. A member may resign at any time by giving written notice to all members and, unless otherwise specified in such notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof and the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to, make it effective. Membership shall be evidenced by the appearance of the member's name on the corporation's membership roll. No member shall be required to pay dues or fees of any kind

Section 2. The members who are entitled to cast 100 votes or cast one-tenth of the total number of votes entitled to be cast, whichever is less, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the members, except as otherwise provided by statute or by the certificate of incorporation. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the members, the members present in person or represented by proxy shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

Section 3. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members entitled to vote at the meeting shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater or lesser number of members is required by law or the certificate of incorporation.

Section 4. All persons whose names appear on a membership roll, certified by the secretary of the corporation as being the list of members, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members. A member may vote, either in person or by proxy, executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact.

Section 5. Whenever members are required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting, on written consent, setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the members entitled to vote thereon, or signed by such lesser number of members as may be provided for in the certificate of incorporation.

ARTICLE V

Directors

Section 1. The size of the board of directors shall be fixed by the members or the board of directors, provided that the number of directors shall be no less than three. Directors shall be at least eighteen years of age, an officer of The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., and a member of this corporation; directors need not be residents of the State of New York. The directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members, except as hereinafter provided, and each director elected shall serve until the next succeeding annual meeting, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. Any or all of the directors may be removed for cause by the vote of the members or by action of the board. Directors may be removed without cause only by vote of the members.

Section 3. Newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the board of directors, and all vacancies occurring in the board of directors, including vacancies caused by removal without cause, may be filled by the affirmative vote of 'a majority of directors then in office, although less than a quorum exists, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next meeting of members at which election of directors is the regular order of business, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. A director elected to fill a newly created directorship shall serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of members, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 4. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors, which may exercise all such powers of the corporation, and do all such lawful acts and things, as are not, by statute or by the certificate of incorporation or by these by-laws, directed or required to be exercised or done by the members.

ARTICLE VI

Meetings of the Board of Directors

Section 1. Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without the State of New York.

Section 2. A regular annual meeting of the board shall be held immediately following the annual meeting of members at the place of such annual meeting of members, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary. Such meeting may, alternatively, be convened at such place and time as shall be fixed by the consent in writing of all the directors.

Section 3. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held upon such notice, or without notice, and at such time and at such place as shall, from time to time, be determined by the board.

Section 4. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president, on three days' notice to each director; special meetings shall be called by the president or the secretary in like manner, and on like notice, on the written request of two directors.

Section 5. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who submits a signed waiver of notice, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice. Neither the business to.be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 6. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a greater or lesser number is required by law or by the certificate of incorporation. The vote of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law or by the certificate of incorporation. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of directors, the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 7. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if, before or after such action, a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the board, or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee.

Section 8. Any one or more members of the board of directors, or any committee thereof, may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

ARTICLE VII

Notices

Section 1. Whenever, under the provisions of the statutes or of the certificate of incorporation or of these by-laws, notice is required to be given to any director or member, it shall not be construed to require personal notice, but such notice may also be given in writing, by mail, addressed to such director or member, at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Notice to directors may also be given by telegram, telefax or email.

Section 2. Whenever any notice of a meeting is required to be given under the provisions of the statutes, or under the provisions of the certificate of incorporation or these by-laws, a waiver thereof, in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE VIII

All officers shall be appointed to hold office until the such time during the regular meeting of the board following the annual meeting of members as their successors are elected.

Section 2. The board of directors may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary, who shall hold their offices for such terms, and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties, as shall be determined from time to time by the board of directors.

Section 3. The salaries of all officers and agents of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire board as to officers.

Section 4. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation shall be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5. The chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, shall preside at all meetings of the members and the board of directors, and shall have general and active management of the affairs of the corporation.

Section 6. The president shall be the chief operating officer of the corporation, shall preside at all meetings of the members and the board of directors if the chairman is not present, shall have general and active management of the affairs of the corporation, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the board of directors are carried into effect.

Section 7. The vice president, or, if there shall be more than one, the vice presidents, in the order determined by the board of directors, shall, in the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the president, and shall perform such other duties, and have such other powers, as the board of directors may, from time to time, prescribe.

Section 8. The secretary shall attend all meetings of the board of directors and all meetings of the members, and shall record all the proceedings of the meetings of the corporation and of the board of directors in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall perform like duties for the standing committees, when required. He or she shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members, and special meetings of the board of directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors, the chairman or the president, under whose supervision he shall be. He or she shall have custody of the corporate seal of the corporation, and he or she, or an assistant secretary, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it, and, when so affixed, it may be attested by his or her signature, or by the signature of such assistant secretary. The board of directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the corporation, and to attest the affixing by his or her signature. The secretary shall also keep a membership roll containing the names, alphabetically arranged, of all persons who are members of the corporation, showing their places of residence and the time when they became members.

Section 9. The assistant secretary, or, if there be more than one, the assistant secretaries, in the order determined by the board of directors, shall, in the absence or disability of the secretary, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the secretary, and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the board of directors may, from time to time, prescribe.

Section 10. The treasurer shall have custody of the corporate funds and securities, and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation, and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors.

He or she shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board of directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the president and the board of directors, at its regular meetings, or when the board of directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as treasurer, and of the financial condition of the corporation.

If required by the board of directors, he shall give the corporation a bond, in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the board of directors, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and for the restoration to the corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property, of whatever kind, in his possession or under his control, belonging to the corporation.

Section 11. The assistant treasurer, or, if there shall be more than one, the assistant treasurers, in the order determined by the board of directors, shall, in the absence or disability of the treasurer, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the treasurer, and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the board of directors may, from time to time, prescribe.
