Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Other Program Service Descriptions	Mother/Child Passage House, which is located in a residential neighborhood on the east side of Anchorage, is Covenant House Alaskas (CHA) transitional living program for young women who are pregnant or parenting. Our program provides young mothers and their children with a place to live for up to 18 months, while they gain the necessary skills and resources to become productive, successful, independent adults who can care for themselves and their families. Medical Life on the streets makes youth highly susceptible to a wide variety of illnesses and injuries. To provide the care these youth need, Covenant House Alaska (CHA) offers free health services through the Crisis Center and Community Services Center. CHA operates a free, walk-in medical clinic at the Community Services Center. Outreach: The goal of street outreach is simple - reach youth where they are - on the streets. Through Street Outreach, teams of CHA outreach workers, peer outreach workers and volunteers hit the streets to provide teens with immediate assistance, such as food, bus tokens, socks and warm clothing, as well as information about CHA programs. After the initial contact is made, we work to establish relationships with each youth, and continue encouraging them to take advantage of CHA programs and services. Whether we're on foot, on bikes or in the Street Outreach van, our message is clear - we care about you and we want to help.
