A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of Company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

Our responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our report.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our review was made for the purpose of expressing a conclusion that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The information included in the accompanying Schedule I is presented only for purposes of additional analysis and has been subjected to the inquiry and analytical procedures applied in the review of the basic financial statements, and we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made thereto.

The costs of advertising are expensed as incurred and amounted to $795 for the year ended June 30, 2013

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of respective assets using the straight line method.

The estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

Vehicles	5 years
Office furniture and equipment	5 years

Additions, renewals and betterments are capitalized whereas expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations. The cost and related accumulated depreciation of assets retired or sold are removed from the appropriate assets and depreciation accounts and the resulting gain or loss is reflected in operations.

Promises to Give

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire in the fiscal year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

Income Tax Status

H.O.P.E. is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, no income taxes are provided in the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization's Forms 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

H.O.P.E. maintains its cash balances with various financial institutions located in the Baltimore, Maryland area, which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. H.O.P.E. has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its cash and cash equivalents.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing various program and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statement of Activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program and supporting services benefitted.

Date of Management's Review

Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 5, 2014, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE C. Commitments

The Organization rents three warehouse spaces on a year-to-year basis. The monthly rental is $3,221 plus utilities. Rent expense for the year ended June 30, 2013 was $38,657.
