Exempt Purpose, Line 1, Organization's Mission

Club for Growth is a nationwide nonprofit membership organization dedicated to promoting public policies that promote economic growth primarily through legislative involvement, issue advocacy, research, and training and educational activity and may engage in any other lawful purpose.

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments, Line 4

a. Public education and research $588,127

The organization conducts a program of public education through speeches, articles and TV and radio news interviews to educate citizens on the benefits of pro-growth policies and the work of the organization. Staff members wrote articles on topics including economic policy, tax policy and excessive spending that appeared in leading newspapers and news outlets, including Politico and Roll Call, two of Washington D.C.'s most influential publications covering public policy. Staff members appeared on many nationally distributed TV and radio news programs and dozens of local radio programs and were quoted in numerous newspapers and online news sites.

b. Publications $207,903

The organization publishes information in print and on the Internet to educate on economic issues and to motivate people to act in support of pro-economic growth policies. Its blog published 143 entries and was visited by over 120,000 unique visitors during the fiscal year. It publishes a membership newsletter that has a printed circulation of over 35,000 copies. The organization also publishes information on Facebook and Twitter and posted nearly 400 times using the mediums. We also maintain a listserv on free trade issues whose subscribers are primarily well known public policy advocates. We publish an annual Congressional Scorecard on pro-growth economic policy issues and we published a "spending cuts scorecard" that tracked the votes of Members of Congress on amendments to cut spending.

c. Legislative Involvement and Policy Advocacy 1,017,767

The organization monitors legislation that can help or harm economic growth, and urges its adoption or rejection by the U.S. Congress and the President. In addition to its public education efforts, such actions for legislative involvement and policy advocacy included 28 Key Vote Alerts, 24 coalition letters, and 27 press releases. To further its efforts to enact pro-economic growth legislation, the organization also periodically publishes reports on congressional roll call votes on legislation that would impact economic growth for distribution to the media, its members and the public.

d. Lectures and Conferences $347,771.
