Schedule I, Part 1, Line 2. The Council has development monitoring policies and procedures to assure all sub-recipients comply with the grant requirements, as well as with government regulations applicable to the Workforce Investment Act.

Participants in the Employment and Training programs administered by the SCWDC are screened to ascertain they meet eligibility standards set by Federal and State agencies.

Participant records are maintained on paper at the local level, and digital records are maintained at a local and state level to document eligibility and performance against standards.

Samples of these records are selected for detailed review by federal, state, and local monitors.

Expenditures for program participants are approved by case managers, supervisors, and the finance department, before being paid by checks accompanied by the supporting data signed by the SCWDC Director or another authorized managerial staff person.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

On February 11, 2008, the Board of Directors designated the Executive Director and Finance Manager to use the most recent wage study of other Executive Directors and Chief Financial Officers/Finance Managers in other Workforce Development Councils in Washington State to determine that key staff do not receive excess compensation. On March 11, 2008, the Board reviewed the wage study and adopted a salary schedule for each staff position within the South Central Workforce Development Council, which salary schedule was within the range of other Workforce Development Councils in Washington State. That salary schedule continued through December 31, 2012.

On December 12, 2012, the Board of Directors reviewed a new wage study conducted by the Executive Director for purposes of determining a revised salary schedule for staff positions within the South Central Workforce Development Council. This wage study included an analysis of the compensation of Executive Directors and Chief Financial Officers/Finance Managers in other Workforce Development Councils in Washington State. Based on this wage study, on December 12, 2012, the Board also adopted a revised salary schedule for each staff position within the South Central Workforce Development Council, which salary schedule was again within the range of other Workforce Development Councils within Washington State. This salary schedule was made effective January 1, 2013, and has continued through June 30, 2013.
