Under "Other Programs" - The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) outreach component was new and provides free tax preparation for income eligible households during tax season. The program also provides referrals to other forms of assistance including utilities and most recently, disaster assistance, after Superstorm Sandy. Total revenue and expenses under the VITA program for the year ended June 30, 2013 was $380,000.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

Emergency Food Distribution - The core program of the FoodBank is the collection of donated and surplus food in its warehouse and the distribution of that food to charitable agencies serving families in need in Monmouth and Ocean Counties. The FoodBank served 165 charitable agencies, which in turn operated a total of 276 different programs, consisting of food pantries, soup kitchens, shelters for homeless or abused persons, after school programs for children, and day and residential programs for low income children, the elderly and disabled. While some agencies pick up the food themselves, about 70% of all the food distributed is delivered directly to the agencies on FoodBank trucks. Sources of donated food include local food drives and donations, national donations through Feeding America, and government food such as The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP). The FoodBank supplements donated food and products with specific food and grocery items purchased through a small bulk co-op program, as well as purchases made with funding from the State Food Purchase Program.

Culinary Kitchen Program - The Culinary Kitchen Program provides hands-on-training in an onsite kitchen for underprivileged adults in need of permanent employment. The program helps men and women become self sufficient by providing the skills they need to obtain better paid jobs and is supported mainly through grant funding. The Culinary Kitchen Program provides hot meals daily for 140 low income children at the Monmouth County Boys & Girls Club in Asbury Park and Red Bank.

Multiple Benefits Access Program - The goal of the Multiple Benefits Access Program is to assist households to access benefits and resources that will help them build income and food security. This program includes Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Outreach, which assists client eligibility pre-screening, application assistance and submission for food stamps at over 20 community sites each month. The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) outreach component provides free tax preparation for income eligible households during tax season. The program also provides referrals to other forms of assistance including utilities and most recently, disaster assistance, after Superstorm Sandy.

Mobile Pantry Program - The Mobile Pantry Program uses a specially outfitted beverage truck to distribute food directly to people at 12 sites each month, including housing authorities, trailer parks, union buildings, churches and other community sites where existing pantries are difficult to reach.

The FoodBank operates the Senior Food Package Program, also known as the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP), which provides monthly packages of food, provided by the Department of Agriculture, to seniors living in low income housing sites.

The Backpack Program - The Backpack program provides backpacks of food for the weekend on Friday afternoons to chronically hungry children at fifteen schools.

The FoodBank participates in the Summer Food Service Program, sponsoring the provision of breakfasts and/or lunches to over 600 low income children attending summer programs at 15 community sites.

Community Garden Program - The Community Garden Program helps adults and youth grow fresh produce as a community service.

Children's Programs enable youth groups to visit the FoodBank to learn about hunger, its causes, and solutions, or display their works in an Art Gallery depicting important social themes such as hunger and volunteerism. The Volunteer Program provides community service opportunities for businesses, civic groups, schools and individuals.

Hunger Awareness - The FoodBank also promotes hunger awareness campaigns with the local media to educate the public regarding the problem of hunger.
