FORM 990, PART III, LINE 2
FORM 990, PART VI, LINE 11		The University's Form 990 was prepared by Grant Thornton LLP in conjunction with the University's financial department. A copy of the draft Form 990 was made available to the Finance Committee on a secured website maintained by the organization. Each Board Member was provided ample opportunity to comment on the information contained in the 990 prior to its electronic filing with the Internal Revenue Service.
FORM 990, PART VI, LINE 12		Each officer, director, trustee and key employee of the University is required to annually disclose any conflicts of interest that arise by virtue of their employment, board service, or position with the University. The University monitors compliance with its conflict of interest policy through an annual questionnaire/disclosure statement that is distributed to these individuals. Potential conflicts are investigated immediately by an ad hoc committee established for just such purpose.
FORM 990, PART VI, LINE 15		The President is the organization's top management official. The President's compensation is determined by the executive committee of the board. In determining compensation, the Board relies upon comparability data of institutions similarly situated to Salus University. The deliberations to determine the President's Compensation are documented in the Board Committee's minutes. Compensation paid to other officers or key employees of the organization is determined by the President of the University in consultation with the Director of Human Resources. When necessary, they will utilize independent comparability data to benchmark a reasonable salary for these individuals.
FORM 990, PART VI, LINE 19		The organization makes its Form 990 available to the public by retaining a copy at its place of business. The Form 990 is likewise published on the internet at www.guidestar.org. The organization's financial statements, governing documents and conflict of interest policy are not ordinarily made available to the public, but, if requested, will be provided at management's discretion.
